Hirohito Orders Rule By Decree

Suzuki Calls Situation Most Critical In Nation's History

(By Associated Press)

Emperor Hirohito directed the Japanese diet yesterday to hand over virtually all its powers to the war cabinet which will rule by decree in an effort to cope with what Premier Kantaro Suzuki called "the most critical situation in the history of our nation."

Opening of the two-day emergency session in bomb-ravaged Tokyo with a prediction that the unprecipitated war powers would be granted quickly was reported by the Diet in a series of broadcasts recorded by the Federal Communications Commission.

Addressing both houses, Premier Suzuki forced an American invasion of Japan and would of new shortages of food, munitions and transport, but rejected unconditional surrender and

WAR'S MEANING IS PORTRAYED

Here's Your Infantry' Will Show Life Of Men At Front

With the sounds of battle in his ears, the picture of attacking infantry in his eyes and the smell of burnt powder in his nostrils, the average American soon will have a better idea of what his war bond purchases mean. For the Seventh War Loan, army fund drives have sent out 25 teams of infantrymen to acquaint the public with infantry fighting and infantry weapons. Called "Here's Your Infantry," it is a grandstand seat to war, showing the exciting, noisy, thrilling and an experience that no American will want to miss.

The infantrymen, 39 in each team, pack a Jap pillbox with rifles, machineguns, mortars, bazookas and flamethrowers just as they are doing in the Pacific today. The attack is the highlight of a demonstration which includes the display and explanation of infantry weapons and the exhibition of equipment and tactics.

These infantry units will tour the nation, playing more than 80 cities during the drive, and bring to the public for the first time a graphic portrayal of why war cost what it does and why it must be paid for in war bonds.

A few of these units were used during the sixth war loan, Treasury Secretary Henry Morgenthau, Jr., said. If their work in selling war bonds, "Here's Your Infantry," proved to be the outstanding national promotion of the drive.

Secretary Morgenthau asked Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell, commanding army ground forces, to expand the program, giving it value to the nation and General Stilwell immediately initiated action to put a total of 1,100 men into training for the "Here's Your Infantry" drive.

Training at Fort Benning's famed infantry school in Georgia, the units are made up of men recently returned from combat. They know their weapons from actual experience in battle. All of them wear battle ribbons, most of them bought war bonds overseas.

The exhibits will be on a grand scale and the public will be permitted to handle weapons, watch them as

WARD'S TO APPEAL COURT'S DECISION

CHICAGO, June 9.—(AP)—Montgomery Ward and Company served notice today of intention to carry its legal fight against government seizure of properties in seven cities to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Company counsel asked a stay of mandate from the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals, which yesterday in a 2 to 1 decision held the seizure was legal.

A Ward's lawyer said this action informed the appellate court the company intended to ask the high court to hear the case at the same time pre-hearing yesterday's decision from becoming effective at least until the supreme court agrees to or refuses a review.

If the high court takes the case then could be on ruling until next fall, the supreme court adjourns for the summer next week.

United States Attorney J. Albert Wall said he may have the government answer to Ward's latest move early for filing Monday.

Judges Evan A. Evans and Otto Kerner yesterday declared President Roosevelt's December 28 seizure order was valid under the War Labor Disputes Act, reversing District Judge Philip L. Sullivan, who on January 21, held that the president had neither statutory nor constitutional authority in the order. Judge Will M. Sparks of the appellate court dissented, agreeing with Judge Sullivan.

Government Officials Held On Espionage Charges

These three government officials have been arrested by the F. B. DISCHARGE SOME SEIZED GERMANS

600,000 Will Be Kept By U. S. For Use As Laborers

By Austin Bealmear

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS ALLIED EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, Paris, June 9.—(AP)—United States armies, which held 2,852,000 German prisoners in Europe, which victory came, will keep 600,000 of them, Col. Robert J. Gill disclosed today.

Another 200,000 to 225,000 American-held troops will be handed over to France for labor in this country, said Gill, chief of the prisoner of war division in the European theater provost marshal's office.

With nearly 500,000 prisoners in the United States and another 25,000 in Britain, Gill estimated it would take at least nine months to cut the total figure to 600,000 by various means, some of which still have not yet been decided upon.

Gill reiterated previous statements of high American military authorities that German prisoners would be "permitted" to remove land mines but declined further comment on that subject.

He emphasized, however, that all plans for employment of prisoners in the rehabilitation of battered Europe were based on rules of the Geneva convention despite the fact the German government—which was a signatory of the convention—has ceased to exist.

About 160,000 Germans now held by Americans in three prison camps north of Cologne will be turned over to the British when occupation zones are definitely established, Gill said.

The captives to be turned over to France now are held in seven enclosures in France, he said, adding they will come under complete charge of the French.

Gill also disclosed that about 18 per cent of the total bag of prisoners would be discharged and sent home under a plan to turn loose all miners, farmers, transport workers, women prisoners and men over 50 years of age who are not suspected of war crimes. These discharges already are underway and probably will reach 300,000 in the next week or two, he said.

SS troops, none of which are being discharged, are being held for investigation as war criminals and segregated.

SHOWDOWN NEAR OF FEPC ISSUE

Southern Congressmen Defying Administration On Poll Tax

WASHINGTON, June 9.—(AP)—With Democratic ranks sharply split and southern Congressmen defying the administration, the showdown is due next week on two controversial issues—FEPC and the poll tax.

Legislation against the poll tax, required in seven southern states will be considered Monday in the House.

The proposal to create a permanent Fair Employment Practices Committee will be voted on Tuesday in the House rules committee, where it has been stalled for months.

Southerners in general said today they will stick by their opposition to the proposals, even though it may result in a major break with President Truman.

"We just can't go along with the president this time," declared Representative Cox, Democrat, Georgia, in a typical comment.

Of several questioned, nearly all predicted to a reporter that the anti-poll tax measure will succeed—temporarily—but the FEPC bill will be blocked. Here's their general idea of what will happen:

The House will approve the anti-poll tax legislation, as it has done in two

GERMANS ARE SINGING IN GAUNT, BURNED-OUT BERLIN

By Eddy Gilmore

BERLIN, June 9.—(AP)—The capital of the third Reich is a heap of gaunt, burned-out, flame-seared buildings, with mile after mile of destruction. It is a hot desert of a hundred thousand dunes made up of brick, stone and powdered masonry.

Over this hangs the pungent stench of death.

Berlin is living proof of the most awful vengeance which a modern people have brought upon themselves. It is a city more ruined than London after the fire raids, Warsaw after all her sufferings, and Stalingrad after one of history's most furious battles.

I saw the ruins in those cities and now, in company with other Allied correspondents brought here from Moscow, I have seen Berlin.

The Red army commander of Berlin, Col. Gen. Nikolai E. Bazarov, said 45 per cent of the buildings and houses in greater Berlin are destroyed beyond repair. Downtown Berlin has been bombed and shelled into oblivion.

Yet the song of Berlin today—and

VETO 'FIGHT ON' AT CONFERENCE

Great Nations Trying To Convince Small Ones Of Necessity

MORE CLARIFICATION OF VOTE FORMULA IS ASKED

By Douglas B. Cornell

SAN FRANCISCO, June 9.—(AP)—Australian Foreign Minister Herbert V. Evatt declared today that "the fight is on" and the United Nations conference moved toward a showdown on a Big Five interpretation of their veto-voting authority.

The great nations were trying to convince all small countries that they must have supreme veto-voting rights in the security council of a new world organization. Evatt's four-word pronouncement underscored the difficulties, but they were confident of winning out after some speech-making.

The Australian has been leading small-nation opposition to broad vetoes, Russia, China, Britain, France and the United States insist that the veto must apply at all levels when the security council acts to erase threats of peace or prevent aggression.

A subcommittee considered their interpretation today, then passed it up to its parent committee, minus recommendations for approval or disapproval, for more study and debate tonight.

Complaints rang out in the subcommittee, delegates reported, that more clarification is needed of the veto formula, and that the Big Five had failed to answer specifically a number of questions put to them by little countries on how it would work.

Evatt spoke several times. So did America's delegate, Senator Tom Connally, Democrat, Texas, in rebuttal.

Some small countries, at least, already were persuaded that full veto authority is necessary. Peruvian Foreign Minister Manuel Gallagher, for example, backed it at a news conference.

Repeating some of the arguments the great powers themselves have made, Gallagher remarked that the veto had been removed from election of judges to a world court, that the

WELCOME PATTON AND DOOLITTLE

Los Angeles All But Blows Lid For Two Famous Generals

LOS ANGELES, June 9.—(AP)—After receiving the thunderous ovation of crowds estimated from 750,000 to more than a million, Gen. George S. Patton, Jr., and Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle made brief speeches at the city hall tonight, in which General Patton warned, "this war is only half over. It could damn well be lost."

"We both the and Doolittle," remember we are but the symbols of countless gallant men in the ground and air forces. The other people won the medals. We wear them. In the Third army alone 30,000 men are dead. 130,000 men are wounded. The roads of France, Luxembourg, Germany, Austria and Czechoslovakia are sprinkled with their blood.

"It's up to you people with your sweat and your pocketbooks to see that the incomparable team of the army, navy and marines are supported until the Japs are defeated as Germany was defeated."

Doolittle said: "I am glad to be home—particularly glad at this time as I see by the papers I am going away again. They say I am going to the Pacific."

"As Gen. Patton said, this job is only half done. I'll make a deal with you. Suppose we form a team

SMALL CLASS AT SELMAN FINISHES

One of the smallest classes in the history of Selman Field was graduated from the advanced navigation school Saturday morning when less than 200 navigators received their gold bars and wings in ceremonies at the theater.

The graduation of class 45-14N, the first since April 21, was attended by Col. R. A. Strauss, acting commanding officer, arriving here recently. Colonel Strauss presented the Air Medal to Lt. Herman I. Siedel, veteran of the Eighth Air Force, and presented an instructor at the navigation school.

Addressing the graduates Capt. John P. Wright, bombardier-navigator, who flew 41 missions in the Middle East, said that numerical superiority of American planes in the Far East will reduce the number of losses to a small number. He warned, however, that careless navigation is as dangerous as enemy fire.

In his first appearance before a student body at Selman Field, Colonel Strauss made the presentation of the wings to the graduates.

Also honored at the ceremonies was F. O. George E. Huss, of Los Angeles, Calif., a member of the graduating class who received a trophy for the best physical fitness record. Flight Officer Huss scored the highest mark in the class with 84 per cent.

BRADLEY ASKS FOR MILITARY SUPPORT

MOBERLY, Mo., June 9.—(AP)—Gen. Omar N. Bradley—Missouri's greatest soldier—came back to his home town today to plead with Randolph county citizens to continue unremitting support for the military forces until final victory.

It is practically impossible to exaggerate in describing the destruction of Berlin. Bazarov said Allied aviation dropped 65,000 tons of bombs on it and that the Red army in eight days concentrated 40,000 tons of artillery shells on it.

Berlin's population now is 3,000,000, the Russians estimate, with more Germans coming in hourly. There are 40,000 wounded German soldiers in the city.

Food, of course, is Berlin's great question mark.

When the Red army entered Berlin the population was on the verge of starvation. The situation has been met by hurrying in food from outlying districts, from beyond the borders of Germany, and even from the Soviet Union itself.

The ration set-up is on rigid lines. There are four general categories and an additional one for children. Heavy GUAM (Sunday), June 10.—(AP)—The U. S. Tenth army tightened a noose Saturday on a doomed pocket of Japanese on Okinawa's southwest coast while the only other Nipponese force, backed into a rugged escarpment, was pounded from sea, air and land with a tremendous bombardment.

The foe, which has lost 67,703 killed in the campaign and has perhaps around 15,000 left, dug in and offered heavy resistance—with their last gesture banzai charges expected at any time.

JAPS SAY LABUAN ISLAND INVADIED

MacArthur Announces Heavy Air Raids Eighth Straight Day

By Fred Hampson

MANILA (Sunday), June 10.—(AP)—The Japanese reported Saturday an Allied invasion of Labuan Island off the northwest coast of oil-rich Borneo.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur did not confirm the enemy radio report but his communique today announced heavy air raids for the eighth consecutive day on Labuan and the Brunei bay area in which Labuan is situated.

Allied light naval forces also shelled the northeast coast of Borneo, MacArthur announced.

U. S. army 13th air force, Seventh Australian air force and U. S. Seventh fleet heavy, medium and fighter-bombers dealt the Borneo blows as the air war in the East Indies reached a crescendo.

Liberators of the 13th air force cascaded a heavy tonnage of bombs on Labuan and on a nearby airfield, while delayed reports showed the RAAF on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday smashed the nearby mainland town of Brunei in a succession of raids, destroying many Japanese buildings. These strikes were followed by another 13th air force raid on the same area.

The airbases of Ranau, Jesselton, Sandakan, Kudat and Keningau all were hit and cratered, while the railroad bridge over the Pados river near Brunei was damaged in the heaviest series of strikes yet made by planes based in the Philippine and East Indies.

Labuan is on the northern flank of the mouth of Brunei bay, on the opposite side of northern Borneo from Tarakan Island, which Australian and Dutch forces invaded 41 days ago. Japanese opposition on Tarakan has been virtually knocked out.

MacArthur reported American planes set fires in harassing raids on Telukok, on Formosa, caused a large explosion with a direct hit on the Woosung docks near Shanghai, China and bombed a small arms plant near Canton, besides doing extensive damage to railways on Hainan Island and in Indo-China.

In the Philippines cleanup campaign, he announced that the U. S. 37th Infantry division, in an eight-mile advance along the winding road leading towards the Cagayan valley of northern Luzon, had liberated the town of Solano and reached within four miles of the Bagabag highway junction.

On Mindanao Island, southeastern Philippines, doughboys of the 24th division drove toward the town of Baguio, named after the summer capital in northern Luzon. The Yanks

4 ITALIAN, 2 NAZI PRISONERS CAUGHT

NEW ORLEANS, June 9.—(AP)—The Federal Bureau of Investigation announced today the capture of four Italian and two German prisoners of war, seized from P. O. W. camps in Louisiana and Arkansas.

Charles F. Weeks, F. B. I. agent here, said three of the Italians fled from a camp at Monticello, Ark., Thursday night and were arrested today by a patrolman in a cemetery in a nearby town.

Weeks noted the men as Lorenzo Favara, Gaetano Rossi and Felice Cosentino.

The fourth Italian, Guiseppe Bacelle, escaped from the Magnolia, Ark., camp Friday and was also recaptured today.

The Germans, listed as Hans Joachim Fietler and Fritz Hertz, were taken into custody by Capt. Houston D. Greene and Sgt. Vernon Holloman of the Louisiana state police. Weeks said. The two escaped June 6 from a branch P. O. W. camp at Bastrop, La., the F. B. I. agent reported and were recaptured in railroad yards at Alexandria, La.

The state police officers reported that Fietler was suffering from a fractured leg received from shifting goods in a freight car.

HITLER AND EVA BRAUN WED 2 DAYS BEFORE BERLIN FALL

By Eddy Gilmore

BERLIN, June 9.—(AP)—Adolf Hitler married his sweetheart, Eva Braun, two days before Berlin's fall and the lovers might have escaped from the German capital by plane, Marshal Gregory K. Zhukov, Russian conqueror of the city, said today.

"We have found no corpses which could be Hitler's," Zhukov said in the first authoritative report on the Hitler mystery.

Zhukov said the German Fuehrer and his bride had good opportunities to get away from Berlin after one of history's most macabre marriages.

"He could have taken off at the very last moment, for there was an airfield at his disposal," said the head of the Red army's occupation forces in Germany.

The Soviet commandant of Berlin, Col. Gen. Nikolai E. Bazarov, also said that Russian soldiers had not yet found Hitler's body.

"My personal opinion is that he has disappeared somewhere into Europe," Bazarov said. "Perhaps he is in Spain with Franco. He had the possibility of taking off and getting away."

aged in surveying and in the timber business. His death occurred in May in 1921.

Monsignor Vandegae leaves the following brothers and sisters: Thomas Vandegae, Kansas City, Mo.; Rev. John C. Vandegae, pastor at Tallulah; Nina, now Sister Theresa, of the Sisters of Divine Providence, Theresa Vandegae, now Mrs. Marion Conley of Many.

Mrs. Mary Vandegae, Scott of Houston, Tex., will arrive today to attend the funeral.

After a preliminary curriculum in the public and parochial schools and at Gessen, where he attended a school conducted by the Benedictine Fathers, he entered Major Seminary in Montreal, Canada. He was ordained to the priesthood at Natchitoches June 26, 1902.

His first pastorate was at Vidalia from 1902 to 1907 where he attended the scattered missions in Tenes, Concordia, Franklin, and Catoula parishes. In 1907 he was transferred to Cloutierville in Natchitoches parish where he remained until 1912 when he was assigned to the pastorate at St. Matthew's in Monroe. In 1921, at the Diocesan Synod, he was made dean of the Monroe district which comprises northeast Louisiana and includes the churches at Lake Providence, Vidalia, Rayville, Hodge and Tallulah, together with a number of mission churches.

The monsignor often recalled his early experiences when he rode horseback while at Vidalia and Cloutierville which was his means of transportation from outlying mission church to mission church. He was painstaking and completely unselfish as he made his way from home to home in all kinds of weather, called by sickness and death of parishioners.

When monsignor came to Monroe there were but 600 Catholics in the resident population; today there are 2,000 so resident. There was a small school, St. Matthew's Parochial, located in a small inadequate wooden building.

Today St. Matthew's school is housed in a large modern structure on Grammont street immediately east of the rectory and it has upwards of 400 students. The growth of this school has been one of the many deep-rooted interests of the monsignor, and Outside of Monroe missions have made good growth in the past decade. In the early days, the pastor at St. Matthew's here had charge of small missions in places unable financially to afford full-time priests. These missions were located at Rayville, Bastrop, Hodge and Ruston. Today all have advanced sufficiently to enable them to each maintain a full-time priest.

One of the highlights in the life of the beloved priest came when, in June 1937, men and women not only of the Catholic faith but club members, civic leaders and admirers of the theologian, assembled in the auditorium of St. Matthew's Parochial school to observe in fitting manner the Silver Jubilee, marking 25 years in which Father Vandegae had served continually and devotedly as pastor of the church. That event was a notable one when pastors of other churches and representative residents of Monroe and vicinity assembled to pay tribute to the pastor for his notable public service. Many gifts were are numbered in its ranks; Monsignor Vandegae; his brother Father John Vandegae; and his cousin, now assistant pastor of St. Matthew's here, Rev. Father Henry W. Hubley.

Rabbi F. K. Hirsch, of Temple B'Nai Israel, stated Saturday:

"It was with a sense of a personal loss that I learned of the passing of Monsgr. Vandegae, with whom I have been on the most friendly terms for the past 17 years. He was all that a clergyman should be, in fact he was real. Father to his flock. He was kind, charitable, thoughtful, considerate and most tolerant of the weaknesses of human beings. He was unselfish and never thought of either himself or his personal comforts and needs, but always of what he might do for others. Other pastors will come to St. Matthew's, but somehow I think that we shall always feel that this was his church and his name will always be associated with it in our minds. His memory and the memory of his genuine goodness will continue to be a blessing to all of us."

Rev. R. T. Watson, pastor of the First Christian Church, stated that he had only a comparatively short acquaintance with Monsgr. Vandegae but that he had always found him a friendly person who was ever seeking to advance the best interests not only of his church but also of the community at large. He stated that he will be sorely missed in this city where he has so long and faithfully labored.

Other Twin City pastors expressed similar sincere regrets when informed of the death of the veteran pastor.

13-YEAR-OLD NEGRO BOY IS DROWNED

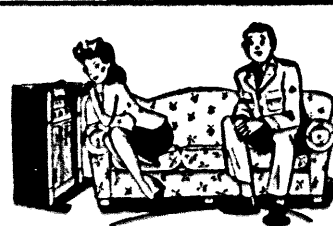

Claudio Mathis, 13-year-old Negro boy, was drowned shortly before noon yesterday in a small lake on Eighteenth street in Bright Oak addition, according to Monroe police who investigated the drowning with Dr. J. T. French, coroner.

Police said the boy was swimming in the lake with another Negro boy, Leon Joseph, 711 Goldman street, who ran and walked into town to report the drowning. It was believed that the Mathis boy, who lived at Adams and 20th streets, suffered a cramp.

The Joseph boy said he swam to his companion and tried to save him but was almost drowned himself before he could free himself from Mathis' struggles. The drowning occurred about 11:30 a. m. and it was an hour later before the Joseph boy reached a telephone and summoned aid. The American Legion emergency truck, manned by Monroe firemen, was summoned at 12:30 p. m. and firemen recovered the body 15 minutes later.

MANEUVERABLE MORTARS

Mortars mounted on landing craft are proving themselves tough and maneuverable as well as hard targets for any enemy gunner to hit. Capable of lobbing shells into enemy territory out of range of ordinary artillery, they are proving their worth when, after landing their cargoes of invading infantrymen, they cruise up and down the coast of the landing beach and throw up an intense artillery curtain to protect our men and permit them time to dig in.

symbols indicated two vouchers totaling $1,700 were paid to A. P. White, secretary to the late Gov. O. K. Allen; another $1,000 to Fred C. Dent, husband of Lucille May Grace, register of the state land office; and a $200 account to Bob Muterbaugh.

The federal agents testimony said further that other symbols indicated the sums of $100 and $150 went to W. D. Blyer, a field superintendent for an oil company "for entertainment purposes."

The government claimed that money paid out in this manner by petty vouchers was charged against the corporation.

Some of the vouchers introduced as evidence bore notations of "shell job — pay this." The witness said the handwriting was that of Burton and that notations of "shell job" had been erased partially from some of the vouchers.

Blackburn testified under cross-examination by Hugh M. Wilkinson, counsel for defense, that the code signals were printed and that other writing on the vouchers had not been identified.

Blackburn was the last witness at the brief Saturday session and court was adjourned until 10 a. m. Monday.

Three witnesses testified in connection with the purchase of silverware which it was stated was purchased by Burton and cost in excess of $22,000.

The witnesses were Perry H. Hyland, an official of the International Silver Company; Harold W. Killen, former salesman for the firm, and Mrs. Carmen Agee, employed in Lake Charles jewelry concern.

The witness testified that a silver service was made especially by the International and delivered to Burton through the M. L. Kramer Company of Lake Charles.

Killen said that he and Kraemer, the latter now deceased, discussed the transaction with Burton at Burton's place of business in Sulphur, La. He testified however that he did not remember the date he submitted his company on the sale, and Judge Wayne G. Borah sustained objection to introduction of a memorandum referred to on this subject.

Will Seek To Show Deductions Made For Private Expenses

NEW ORLEANS, June 9.—A. F. B. I. handwriting expert testified today in the Burton income tax trial that code symbols shown on vouchers of the W. T. Burton Co., Inc., indicated sums paid for political purposes and for entertainment.

The testimony was given in the federal case against W. T. Burton, head of the company and Luke Brown, bookkeeper, charged with evading and conspiracy to evade payment of $135,729.93 in income tax for the fiscal years ending July 1, 1936, 1937 and 1938.

Herbert W. Christenberry, district attorney, told the court the government would seek to show that private expenses were deducted from the corporation's returns as business expenses.

KILL INSECTS IN THAT GARDEN

Care, However, Required Against Poisoning Animals

In small Victory gardens there is advantage in relying as far as possible on the "safe" insecticides that in dosages which kill insects are not poisonous to men and animals, says Mrs. Jewel McQuiller home demonstration agent of Ouachita parish. Rotenone and pyrethrum are not plentiful this season, and substitutes may have to be used, declares the agent, especially on large plantings, but safety factors make especially desirable the use of these materials in home gardens. At close quarters the application of an arsenical to one crop may endanger another because of the drift of dust or spray. Nearly all gardeners will require at least one nicotine preparation for use against sucking insects (particularly aphids). Nicotine is an active poison and should be used and stored carefully. If it is necessary to use calcium arsenate or cydote entomologists urge care in preventing accidents. Care of stored material and care in application is emphasized so as to avoid residues on parts of crops that are used for food. The home demonstration agent lists these precautions. Do not keep garden or household insecticides in the storage spaces used for food where they might get mixed up. Mark insecticides clearly and keep them locked up. Keep insecticides out of the mouth and eyes when mixing or applying them. Keep the body covered when spraying or dusting, and wash face and hands thoroughly after using insecticides. Wash frequently any clothing worn when dusting or spraying. Do not leave containers of poison open or unguarded. Put them away after mixing a batch, and keep animals and children away from the mixed insecticides.

DAINGEROUS RAILS

Early railroads used wooden rails, with a thin strap of iron on top, and passengers often suffered injury when these straps came loose and ran up through the coach floors.

MYTH OF HITLER MAY LAST YEARS

Many Screwballs Will Continue To Claim They're Fuehrer

By James Marlow
WASHINGTON, June 9.—(AP)—We'd better find Hitler—dead or alive—and be sure it's Hitler. If not, we'll probably have to put up with a Hitler myth for years to come.

You can see it now. Screwballs will be jumping off buildings or under trains or dying in opium dens after crawling a note like this: "I sure fooled everybody with H."

In 1955 a breathless Bronx housewife will call the police station: "I have a sister who has a friend whose brother says his boss told him that a man with a little mustache, just like Hitler, with his hair in a bang and a big voice and big pop-eyes, was going from door to door selling postcards in the German neighborhood and a big crowd followed him down the street and can't you do something about it?"

The man said this man with the postcards looked just like Hitler and kept saluting."

The Washington Post, deadpan, says Hitler right now, minus the mustache, may be walking around Hoboken or Milwaukee, looking for a house-painting job.

Desperate at last, the Post thinks, Hitler will grow his mustache again and try to earn a few dollars giving impersonations of himself in bars—rooms only to be looted for a poor imitation.

Unless Hitler is found positively, Germans for years will swear they heard his voice in the wind, sighing around their winter chimneys, that they glimpsed him on a street in Munich, that they saw him weeping on a shattered roof in Berlin.

Fanatic, secret, die-hard Nazis will be waiting for a word from him. There will be reports that in some far off country—maybe deep in the Black Forest of Germany—he is working out a way to whip his countrymen into one final bid for the victory he lost in 1945.

And a thousand years from now if he is not found, he will pass into the folklore of the race. He'll be a demon to men of good will, a patron angel to evil men who will find in the memory of him a new incentive to be inhuman.

There have been other myths about other big names when there was a lot less mystery about their deaths. The British supposedly burned Joan of Arc to death at the stake.

Years later, according to legend, she bobbed up in her home town, married a local boy, and settled down.

A French firing squad was supposed to have finished off Marshal Ney for deserting Napoleon XVIII for his old commander, Napoleon. Years afterwards people swore he wasn't shot at all; that he escaped and taught school in South Carolina.

Napoleon himself—in spite of all the evidence that he died in exile on St. Helena—haunted the French. They kept whispering that he didn't die, that he escaped and was coming any minute now to raise a new army.

There were probably a hundred myths about John Wilkes Booth, who shot Lincoln. These myths said he wasn't shot to death by Union soldiers but appeared later in a dozen American cities and cut his throat 40 years after Lincoln died.

This week news dispatches from Berlin said a "high Russian military source" announced that a turned-up body found there was identified "with fair certainty" as that of Hitler.

But the same stories said four German bodies were found in Berlin and that any one of them answered fairly well to the description of Hitler.

This seems pretty flimsy identification. Because it's so vague—and unless Hitler or his body is identified beyond dispute—look out for the myths and for men with little mustaches and big pop-eyes.

AUTOMOBILE TIRE

FOUND AT RAILWAY

Monroe police yesterday said they had in their possession an automobile tire found a few days ago by a railroad crossing flagman, that they had no reports of the theft or loss of such a tire, but that the owner could obtain it by proper identification.

D. H. Davis, flagman at the Walnut street crossing, found the tire on the river embankment near the Monroe end of the Illinois Central Railroad bridge.

The U. S. Patent Office began numbing its patents serially in 1856.

PLAYGROUNDS IN CITY WILL OPEN

Miss Castles, Director, Explains Plans For Summer Operations

Miss Genevieve Castles, recreation director, announces that the playgrounds of Monroe will officially open Monday June 11 and will be open until August 10. Children, she states, should go to the nearest playground which are maintained at Georgia Tucker, Barkdull Faulk and Sherbourne schools.

The softball leagues will continue schedules, playing afternoons on Monday and Friday at 6:30 p. m.

The recreation center, 1700 South Grand street, will be open for the public's recreation during the summer months. The center will not have too rigid a schedule. It will be open for the use and convenience of the public of all ages. The young adults and mature adults are expected to avail themselves of the facilities provided at the center.

Due to operation of playgrounds, the center will not have activities in the morning. However, in an attempt to have a flexible program, so that the community center will be used, adults may phone in and arrange plans to fit their needs.

The afternoon hours will start regularly at 3 p. m. but by special appointment earlier hours can be planned. There seems to be some misunderstanding about private parties, states Miss Castles. There will be private parties at the center, and during the summer months, all week nights, except Saturdays and Sundays, will be open for planned socials. The regular evening hours will run from 7:30 to 9:30.

Mrs. John Myers will continue as hostess and assist in party plans. Miss Dollie Tichell will continue as sport director and she has already 26 teams operating and they have their own fine umpires association under the supervision of F. L. Jones.

Saturday schedules will be determined by the demand that the public makes. The center will be open Sundays from 3 to 5:30 p. m. so as not to conflict with church activities.

Miss Castles explains that it is true that there is only one public swimming pool, so that if the people from all sections of Monroe travel to Forsythe park for enjoyment of swimming, it is to be expected that the people of the city will gravitate around their own circulation department, Miss Castles states.

SERPENT MONTMENT OF IRON
In Düsseldorf the Germans built a huge iron serpent monument to celebrate the taming of the Rhine river, whose winding floods ravaged the city in times past.

FRIENDS MOURN LOSS OF BERRY

Death Of Brilliant Young Officer Widely Regretted

The wide circle of friends in the Twin Cities expressed great regret when they heard of the death in action of Lt. Bernard F. Berry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sandel Berry of West Monroe. According to word received from the government, he was buried at sea.

The lieutenant was 27 years of age; graduate of Ouachita Parish High school; Northeast Junior College, and was graduated at Louisiana State University where he received the bachelor of science degree in 1941. In his university days, he was president of the American Society of Agricultural engineers and was named to attend the national convention in Chicago in 1939.

He joined the naval air corps in January 1942, and was commissioned at Miami Beach in October 1942. In September 1943, he went to the Southwest Pacific where he saw intense fighting as a torpedo bomber pilot.

In March, 1944, he returned to the States and a month later was married to Miss Opal Robinson, of Huntington, W. Va., at San Leandro, Calif. He was then stationed in San Diego when he was again assigned to overseas duty in January, 1945. While in San Diego he was commissioned as a first lieutenant and was presented with the navy air medal and commendation ribbon for his actions at sea. He was stationed on the same carrier on all of his overseas duty and during April made his 100th landing on the same ship and had 18 to his credit on other ships while in combat.

When War Halted Manufacture of Civilian Cars THE FORD FACTORY ASSIGNED M'CAIN-RICHARDS THE JOB OF RECONDITIONING OF FORD PRODUCTS IN NORTH LOUISIANA

This, in addition to our regular job in our service and repair department.

Clearly, our work was cut out for us.

But it was vital work—to keep Ford engines turning—and soon our Louisiana plant for precision work was in full operation, with its factory-trained mechanics and its precision equipment to disassemble and build motors, and recondition small parts.

Now, more than 2,000 Ford motors have been built to run like new again, and more and more are going through the plant each week. We feel it's time to give a hand to the 18 men and women under Superintendent Horace Eyre in our Reconditioning Plant, for their man-sized contribution to vital wartime transportation.

This is the story of 2,000 war-weary Fords—and the come-back they staged in Monroe.

Every 17 seconds another car gives up for good—one less unit in this war's vital transportation! . . . Take warning, and take steps—

—the home team and the field team. You furnish the supplies and the ships * * * and we will do the rest."

At a later press conference Patton was asked how soon he thought the war will end.

"It will end 24 hours after the Japs surrender."

Doolittle declared he felt positive that the increased bombing of Japan will result in complete victory.

Happy, smiling, yet sometimes touched almost to tears by the ovation, the 50 ribbon-bedecked members of the entourage thus reached the final point of a cross-country journey.

The signal for the homecoming of Patton and Doolittle came when their fleet of skymasters taxied to a stop at the airport and the door opened.

Patton, his familiar polished helmet gleaming in symphony with his shiny riding boots, stepped briskly out, followed by the jauntily but more retiring Doolittle.

From then on it was bedlam, capped tonight by a gigantic military-patriotic pageant for the men in memorial column.

With each of the returning soldiers riding in an open army command car or jeep, the procession began the 20-mile ride to downtown Los Angeles. All along the route the cheering continued.

Deputy Police Chief B. R. Caldwell estimated the downtown crowd at "more than 750,000," with the densest part at the city hall where Mayor Fletcher Bowron greeted the two California-born generals.

Police reported that one excited woman fell out of a second story window, and a dozen or more fainted.

Patton, stepping from the plane to meet the mayor, struck out his hand and exclaimed: "How do you do—I'm damned glad to be here."

Doolittle smiled easily and nodded in agreement.

Overhead an escort squadron of P-40 planes roared a welcome, and during the parade downtown 36 bombers, in addition to numerous fighter ships, cruised about.

past congresses. But then, as also has happened twice before, southern senators will talk it to death in the upper chamber. It was dragged out of committee for floor action by a discharge petition signed by 218 House members.

The rules committee is expected to vote against the FEPC plan, despite a letter from Mr. Truman to Chairman Sabath, Democrat, Illinois, urging favorable action. Four committee members are from the "Solid South" and two others, Representatives Slaughter of Missouri, and Bates of Kentucky, from so-called border states.

The southerners concede that if the FEPC bill should get to the House floor it would pass in that branch of Congress.

Developed a decade ago for use in exploring the bays and swamps of southern Louisiana, marsh buggies have now been improved to such a degree that they can float, cross deserts, and traverse swamps which no other vehicle could attempt to enter.

Oh Jolly Well Smashing, Yanks British Wife Arrives

ANGLO-AMERICAN ALLIANCE

S/Sgt. Vince De Feudis and Wife

"I think I'm a pretty lucky girl." That was how Mrs. Christine De Feudis described her reaction to arriving in America from her native England, where she met and married Yank soldier S/Sgt. Vincent De Feudis, of Worcester, Mass., now stationed at Selmam Field.

A former sergeant in Britain's WAAF (Women's Auxiliary Air Force), Mrs. De Feudis this week told of how her husband flew from Belgium to marry her Oct. 13, 1944, after they had met at a dance at the American airbase somewhere near London.

Her face brightens with a fascinating glow and her eyes widen in an almost awe-struck wonder as she tells of a prolonged shopping spree in New York as her first reaction to this country.

"We spent two days in New York," she said in clipped British sentences. "It was a beautiful glorious sight."

But her preoccupation with new stockings, blouses and dresses was not entirely caused by the attraction of New York's shops. She confessed that she made the trip over with hardly any baggage, having left the service with only her uniform and a few suits.

"It is difficult to buy anything over in England because you need coupons for everything. Fashions are similar to those at home, but the styles here are more modern."

After the two-day visit, in which she also visited Brooklyn, she went to Boston and then to Worcester to visit with her husband's family. New York "has plenty of people and multi-colored taxicabs," but what she missed in Brooklyn was the absence of such Brooklynese as "skoots" and "goils" from the everyday speech.

Here in Monroe, a month after her arrival, Mrs. De Feudis is convinced that the Americans are more friendly than the British, less aloof. She had heard that Monroe is frightfully hot, but that does not worry her. A warm friendly person, she said was not afraid of getting along here. "We've met some very nice people," she said.

What she liked about Monroe was the shopping center which she has already visited. "My wardrobe is not yet complete," she added.

Native of Aylesbury, in Buckinghamshire, Mrs. De Feudis is the daughter of a RAF major. In all the years of the war she has never been in an air raid. "The Japs never came over Reading where I was stationed. I guess I was pretty lucky."

Her arrival in this country aboard the S. S. Argentina, the same boat which carried her husband overseas in June 1942, was made possible by American authorities in London, in conjunction with the Red Cross in this country. In this manner she was able to secure a discharge from the WAAF, and join her husband, who secured an emergency furlough to meet her at his home.

De Feudis said he is sweating out a discharge under point system. He has 88 points.

Then they will return to Worcester, although Mrs. De Feudis admits a preference for Boston which she thinks reminds her of Aylesbury, her home.

to determine collective bargaining agency, declared in his statement that "strong opposition, if not indifference" to the A. F. of L. was shown as far back as 1940, when he said it required three elections to obtain certification of the A. F. of L. as bargaining agent.

Higgins said management had been "harassed by conflicting jurisdictional disputes" among the crafts and that A. F. of L. had shown "no enthusiasm" to his proposal that they set up a single committee to deal for all crafts.

The unions, in a statement issued by the press committee, asserted that the A. F. of L. had "acted in good faith." They charged the shipbuilding commission of the WLB with "double dealing" by failing to maintain the contract "until new agreements" were reached.

"The unions said that the commission, by ordering cancellation of contract 'has deliberately broken the policy of its parent body, the WLB, on the peaceful settlement of war-time disputes between management and labor."

1,500 SHIP WORKERS NEEDED AT ORLEANS

NEW ORLEANS, June 9.—(AP)—Eight naval district headquarters announced today that 1,500 ship workers were urgently needed at Todd-Johnson Dry Docks, Inc. here for repair work on battle-damaged naval vessels and also for conversion of victory ships into troop transports.

The navy said the need was urgent and that an emergency priority had been granted to the company to recruit skilled, semi-skilled and unskilled workers in the New Orleans area.

In addition to using photographic equipment for making reconnaissance photographs, the Army Air Forces make training films and still pictures, file pictures of new equipment, artillery fire control pictures, pictures of aircraft in use by the enemy showing their points of vulnerability, and pictures for use in preparing maps and charts.

DOOMED

phrasing that an invasion of the Japanese homeland may be expected.

Nimitz made clear that the last stand of the Japanese on Okinawa is a typically fierce one. He referred to "heavy" Japanese resistance in the Oroku pocket and to "sharp fighting" in the escarpment sector.

The 96th infantry division was exerting pressure on the center.

The Sixth marine division was employing tanks on drying terrain in a slow tough advance southward against a three-square-mile Japanese pocket on Okinawa's Oroku peninsula in the southwest.

The First marine division, which fashioned the pocket Friday by sending its Seventh regiment westward to the sea on a broad front, got 10 tons of ammunition, water, food and shelter from six amphibious tractors which landed on the west coast before it had been cleared of Japanese and were waiting to meet the leatherneck detail.

The regiment, which reached the sea at noon, was led by Col. Edward W. Snedeker of Bendleman, Neb.

Units of the First Marines then pushed southward, outflanking the big coastal town of Iman and taking within their lines many Okinawan civilians as the Japanese fell back onto the escarpment's 450-foot heights.

South of the escarpment the Japanese held no more than 15 square miles of Okinawa's 485-square-mile area.

The Japanese were being supplied by parachute, Tokyo said.

The enemy broadcasts also claimed new successes for Kamikaze suicide pilots against American shipping at Okinawa, saying that two "enemy warcraft of the larger type" and a heavy cruiser had been sunk by such attacks in two days while two cruisers and three aircraft carriers were damaged. These claims were entirely unconfirmed.

Admiral Nimitz has confirmed the resumption of the suicide attacks in clear weather, however, announcing that 47 Japanese planes were shot down on Wednesday and 20 on Thursday, with two small American ships damaged in the engagements.

Larger and with a longer range than the American-built Martin "Mara"—largest U. S. flying boat—Shetland Flying Boat were shot down on Wednesday and 20 on Thursday, with two small American ships damaged in the engagements.

There are, however, at least 20,000, and possibly as many as 50,000, Germans in Spain now, the Allied authorities here are just beginning to delve into the identities and whereabouts of officially-protected German Nazis in this country.

Some foreigners in Madrid think that Hitler might be in Spain, but on the other hand no reports ever have reached Madrid that the German fuhrer has been seen.

PROPOSE TO REMOVE NAZI WAR INDUSTRY

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS ALLIED EXPEDITIONARY FORCE.

PARIS, June 9.—(AP)—A reparations program to strip Germany of its war plants and avoid the unsuccessful post-World War One plan of attempting to recover war damages in dollar value by revitalizing German industry was outlined today by Ambassador Edwin W. Pauley.

"Our primary policy is to de-industrialize Germany, to destroy its war potential in the future," said Pauley who is President Truman's personal representative on the Allied Reparations Commission. "With that in mind there is considerable material for reparations."

Pauley did not outline all German industries that would be permitted to operate if Britain and Russia adopt the United States view that all those of war nature should be removed or destroyed.

However, the first to be dismantled would be armament plants followed probably by aircraft, shipbuilding and machine tool industries.

Presumably all manufacture of consumer goods will continue to help feed and clothe the German people. The same goes for the making of medical supplies—but a line must be drawn in many cases such as heavy industry, building materials and the manufacture of precision instruments to permit production of peacetime needs while eliminating items such plants have been turning out for war.

Fuel, transport and agricultural industries, of course, also would have to continue as those most necessary to keep down suffering in occupied Germany.

SPAIN SAYS HITLER NOT HIDING THERE

MADRID, June 9.—(AP)—Spanish government spokesmen tonight denied that Adolf Hitler was in Spain as suggested by Col. Gen. Nikolai Bezumov, Soviet commandant in Berlin.

There are, however, at least 20,000, and possibly as many as 50,000, Germans in Spain now, the Allied authorities here are just beginning to delve into the identities and whereabouts of officially-protected German Nazis in this country.

Some foreigners in Madrid think that Hitler might be in Spain, but on the other hand no reports ever have reached Madrid that the German fuhrer has been seen.

HIROHITO

declared that Japan's only choice was "to fight to the last."

In a brief imperial rescript, which was read before Suzuki spoke, Hirohito called on the people to "fulfill the purpose of the holy war" and ordered the diet to "do your duty of deliberating and supporting the war emergency measures" in accordance with imperial will.

Domel said that there were six measures which would empower the cabinet to "issue orders or take steps without parliamentary approval" in the field of transportation, communications, food, munitions, taxes, rehabilitation "and other items related to the nation's war effort."

Suzuki, who quoted the emperor on the "holy war" angle, lashed out at what he called "the tyrannical attitude" and "evil designs" of the United States and Britain, and declared:

"Japan is fighting a war to uphold the principle of human justice, and we must fight to the last."

Suzuki contended that Japan would have the advantage in supply and concentration of troops in American invasion of the homeland, and "we certainly will be able to repulse the enemy and crush his fighting spirit."

Repeatedly he mentioned the difficulties ahead, however, and warned that "it is truly a critical time."

"I hear," he said, "that the enemy is hoarding his demand for unconditional surrender will only mean that our national structure and our people will be destroyed. Against such boasts I talk there is only one measure we must take—that is to fight to the last."

Gen. Korechika Anami and Adm. Mitsumasa Yonai, ministers of war and navy, who also addressed the diet, uttered similar defiance but likewise portrayed Japan's military situation as grim.

Yonai, who said "the war situation in the Okinawa sector is not in our favor," insisted "victory always belongs to those who fight best in the last five minutes."

He asserted that "nearly all air, surface and undersea units of the navy" in the Okinawa campaign had joined the "special attack corps" sworn to suicidal attacks, and claimed for them enormous successes against American shipping.

Anami also praised the suicide tactics, which he called "a unique way of fighting which no other nation than the Japanese is capable of employing, and which I believe will certainly open the way for victory."

He urged "the 100,000,000 people of Japan to follow the example set by the special attack corps" in the event of invasion.

ed along with other suspects, Gill said.

Gill said large numbers of foreign soldiers, mostly Russians, who were impressed into the German army, created a problem originally, but that all of them except the Russians have been returned to the control of the armies of their own countries.

The Russians at first were not interested in their own nationals who had been taken into the German army but they recently changed their policy, he said, disclosing that around 50,000 Russians from the wehrmacht had been returned to Soviet control and repatriation of more than 20,000 others was underway.

Declaring reports that German prisoners received soft treatment were without the "slightest foundations," Gill said many Germans led a hard life because of lack of facilities which cropped up when their numbers exceeded all expectations.

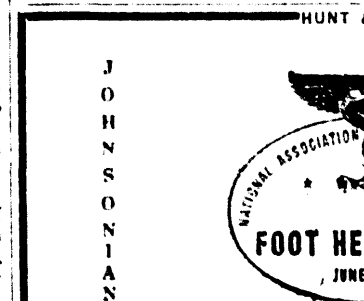

But he pointed out that prisoners—more than 300,000 of whom were laboring for the Americans prior to V-E

DR. PAUL J. WHITMAN
CHIROPODIST

This man opens a new doorway to health...

He can often prevent foot troubles before they happen... remedy your foot ills quickly... keep you walking with that wonderful feeling of well being which is impossible when feet hurt. He is a Chiropodist, the specialist in care of the feet. You need his help. Surveys show that about 90% of the public at some time suffer from foot disorders. Over 70% of adults have Athlete's Foot each year.

Foot ills don't ordinarily correct themselves—they tend to get worse without treatment. To avoid serious foot troubles, see a Chiropodist regularly. Take the children to him too; foot disorders in childhood may cause great suffering later. Remember that healthy feet are the foundation of good health.

FOLLOW THESE RULES OF FOOT CARE

1. See a Chiropodist regularly and at the first sign of foot trouble.
2. Follow his advice about adult's and children's shoes.
3. Consult your Chiropodist about Athlete's Foot. (For daily hygiene, use a fungicidal powder on feet and in shoes.)

CHINESE PUSH TO INDO-CHINA LINE

Pursuing Enemy Units Into Isolated Southeastern Asia

CHUNGKING, June 9.—(AP)—Chinese troops, clearing Japanese forces from South China, have reached the Indo-China frontier and today were pursuing enemy units into isolated Southeast Asia along an 85-mile front, the Chinese high command said.

Veteran troops under Gen. Chang H-Kwei captured the border town of Chungkingfu, 19 miles northeast of the Indo-Chinese highway junction of Caobang, Wednesday. "Enemy remnants fled toward Caobang," 110 miles north of the capital city ofanoi, a communique said.

The Japanese were falling back into Indo-China from the shattered south end of their overland corridor into Korea and were joining an estimated 200,000 enemy troops trapped Southeast Asia.

Eighty-five miles southeast of Chungkingfu, Chinese assault forces won the town of Szele, on the highway to Indo-China and 23 miles from the frontier, and were pressing toward the town of Mingkian, 110 miles north of the capital city ofanoi, a communique said.

capture of which widened to 115 miles the breach in Japan's land bridge—Chinese troops and local militia also attacked the big highway junction of Lungchow, 110 miles northeast of Hanoi.

The Chinese command disclosed that twice in the past three months, Japanese forces had launched attacks from Caobang with the intention of threatening Tsingli, a Kwangsi province highway center 30 miles north, but on each occasion were repulsed.

The drives were made through Chinese-captured Chungkingfu.

Meanwhile, the Japanese launched four counterattacks in north-central Kwangsi province in an effort to break up a Chinese offensive threatening the former U. S. 14th air force base at Luichow, 400 miles southeast of Chungking.

While the Chinese converged on Luichow on a 180-mile front and reportedly battled in the city's northern suburbs, the Japanese counterattacked from their outposts of Ishan, 43 miles west, and were thrown back.

WHY OKINAWA GOING IS TOUGH

Initial landings were unopposed, but the enemy was so well-prepared in the south that Yanks' early speedy advance was slowed to about a mile a week because of . . .

... long-prepared fortified caves and concealed pillboxes in the steep hills. In yard-by-yard advance, Americans literally had to root out Japs by hand, with rifle, grenades and flame-throwers. But capture ... of one of the series of ridges exposed our troops to intense mortar fire (Japs' most dreaded weapon) from the reverse slope and artillery fire from other ridges beyond.

"We must never let Okinawa Island fall to the enemy. . . . If we lost it, we would be cut off from the south and it would serve the enemy as a springboard for the invasion of Japan itself. . . ." So wrote Tokutomi, Jap journalist. And Jap troops on Okinawa fight accordingly, with hitherto unknown skill and tenacity and a desperation that cost them, in the first nine weeks, some 50,000 dead out of the original force, estimated at 85,000 men. Photos above illustrate why the Okinawa campaign proved one of the grimmest of the war.

STRIKES LIKELY AT 30 GULF SHIPYARDS

HOUSTON, Tex., June 9.—(AP)—Action taken by the Houston Metal Trades Council today may lead to strikes in more than 30 Gulf Coast shipyards unless they quit using acetylene gas and oxygen produced or handled by the Air Reduction Sales Corporation, Jeff Davis, secretary, said.

Leo Carter of New Orleans, international representative of the Teamsters' Union, said the action will affect about 30 shipyards. It will work like this: If the Todd Shipyard at Galveston for instance, uses Magnolia Airco gas or oxygen products, the unions there will tell the shipyard those products are on the unfair list and must not be used. If the products are still used, the men, members of unions affiliated with the Metal Trades Council, will go out on strike.

"Our main trouble, of course, is with the Brown Shipbuilding Company and the main trouble there has now developed with the navy," Carter said. "The navy has taken its trucks, put armed guards on them, and sent them to the Magnolia company to get gas and oxygen and deliver it to the Brown yards. I'm charging that the navy is a strike-breaking agency in this case."

"We have brought this matter to the attention of Lt. Comdr. George Shields, navy labor relations man for the eighth naval district, at New Orleans, but he has not said yes or no as to what they're going to do about it."

"It is the navy's next move, it looks like the navy is going to be the indirect cause of shutting down all these other shipyards."

Commander Shields as well as Maj. Walter J. Graham, labor relations man for the United States maritime commission, was in Houston Friday and conferred with Carter, but they were reported to have gone back to New Orleans Saturday.

of the battle to be by Hitler's side. Zhukov said "it is well known that two days before Berlin fell Hitler married Eva Braun." He added that the Russians had found references to the marriage in the diaries of Hitler's personal adjutants.

Zhukov said he could give no definite statement concerning Hitler's ultimate fate or whereabouts, but he said that no bodies had been found that could have been the German Fuehrer's.

(A dispatch from Berlin Wednesday by Joseph W. Gregg, Jr., representing the combined American press at the first meeting of the Allied control council, reported that a high Russian military source said that a body in Berlin had been identified "with fair certainty" as that of Hitler.)

Giving strength to theories that Hitler might have fled Berlin was Zhukov's statement that "we do not know the fate or whereabouts" of Martin Bormann, deputy leader of the Nazi party and Hitler's personal adjutant. Propaganda Minister Joseph Goebbels, on the other hand, was believed dead. Zhukov said nothing about Goebbels' fate, but Bezarin said "he evidently killed himself with a gun and so did his wife. They poisoned their five children beforehand."

The commandant of Berlin said that bodies believed to be those of Goebbels and his family were discovered beneath the propaganda ministry, but added: "Of course, I cannot positively confirm that we have found their bodies."

Bezarin, turning to the question of whether or not Hitler died in Berlin, said:

"There are all sorts of people who were close to him who say that he killed himself. Still others say he was killed by an exploding shell. My own troops who took his ministry found bodies."

"In Hitler's chancellery we found, in fact, too many bodies with his name on them. It got to be a joke. Every time I would find a pair of pants, I would say 'these are Hitler's.'"

Bezarin said a special Russian commission had been investigating the case of what had happened to Hitler. The German burgomaster of Berlin, 68-year-old Arthur Werner, a non-Nazi who has taken over the tough job of heading the capital's city council, could throw no light on what had become of Hitler.

"Hitler—we just don't know," he said. "There are many Germans who say he has found refuge in another country."

Around Berlin, the people said that Eva Braun, variously described as a dark brunette and a blonde from Munich, was not particularly pretty.

big nations have the preponderance of military power, and that so long as they stuck together there will be peace.

"God help us," he said, "if fundamental differences develop among the big ones."

The fact that the United States will have a veto assures there won't be abuse of an inter-American security system through undue interference by the security council, Gallagher said, adding:

"We want to have our brothers, not strangers, speak us if we are bad."

Mexico suggested that any future conference on charter revision be allowed to adopt its own rules on how amendments would become effective.

That would collide with Big Five veto power over amendments.

Supported by the British, Hamilton-Fitch Armstrong, an American adviser, said the United States could not agree to leave the charter open for modifications which might alter big power responsibility for maintaining peace.

A subcommittee left the matter up in the air for the time being.

Secretary of State Stettinius took time out for an overnight rest at a retreat in the country. He arranged to return to San Francisco late tomorrow.

Whipping the security council's voting formula into final shape is the heaviest single task remaining for the conference. A few angles of a trusteeship system for dependent areas of the world still have to be worked out.

CHURCHILL PROMISES REDUCTION IN TAXES

LONDON, Sunday, June 10.—(AP)—Prime Minister Churchill last night promised Britons in a declaration of Conservative party policy a program of national insurance, comprehensive public health services and "an early reduction in taxation."

In the field of foreign relations the prime minister pledged firm prosecution of the war against Japan and the settlement of Europe's problems if his government is returned to power in the July elections.

"We must preserve by any road that opens to the uplands on which will certainly be built the calm temples of peace," he said. "Our prevailing hope is that a foundation will be laid on an indissoluble agreement of Britain, the United States and Soviet Russia."

"I'm in agreement with Bevin (Laborite Ernest Bevin, minister of Labor in the recently-dissolved cabinet) and other leaders of the Socialist party that until the end of the Japanese war, and I hope until a world security organization has become a reality, all citizens under a Democratic government should bear the responsibility for defending their country and its course by a system of national services."

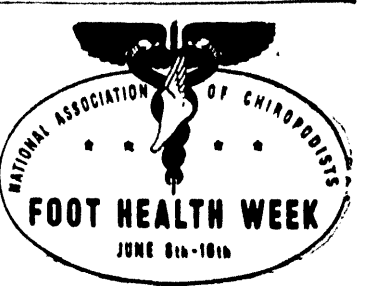

At another point Churchill said that rents and prices and food and building materials would have to be controlled so long as a shortage existed, and that the same would have to be applied to "transport over land and sea."

3 TARGETS

Co's Tomoka plant, five miles south of Yokohama and an army air depot 21 miles west of Tokyo.

Superfort sections, without Mustang escort, bombed the Hitachi engineering works at Sukagawa, about 115 miles northeast of Tokyo and Kasumagaura seaplane base on Kasumagaura lake, 31 miles northeast of Tokyo.

Following demolition attacks on three aircraft plants yesterday, the five-pointed strike disclosed a shift in the 21st bomber command's campaign from mass fire bombing to precision blows on key war plants and bases with high explosives.

Four of today's targets were hit for the first time in medium altitude bombing, both visually and by instrument, where the weather was closed in.

Tachikawa army air depot had been bombed twice previously but the B-29s achieved only slight damage. It is an important storage and repair base for the army air force.

The Hitachi company's Chiba plant, newly built on reclaimed land on the east shore of Tokyo bay, makes both aircraft engines and airframes.

Japan Aircraft Co's Tomoka plant, covering nearly 2,000,000 square feet also produces engines and airframes. This modern plant also was built on reclaimed land south of Yokohama.

The Superfort section which hit the Hitachi engineering works at Sukagawa nearly equalled the mission distance record for the 21st bomber command planes. Sukagawa is about eight miles south of Koriyama, where chemical plants were bombed April 12 in a mission which still holds the record for the longest strike flown.

The Hitachi Engineering Co. is a large factory producing heavy machinery.

Kasumagaura seaplane base is a large naval establishment with shops and repair facilities.

Photo reconnaissance of yesterday's precision raids in Nagoya, Nippon and Akashi showed two large target plants were damaged heavily and a third only slightly affected.

Swanish Aircraft Co's Narou plant, 35 miles southwest of Nagoya, was badly shattered, with 78 per cent of its roof area destroyed or damaged.

Three large concrete reinforced buildings, four stories high took 12 direct hits. Considerable internal damage was probable.

CARRIER PLANES HIT
AIRFIELD ON KYUSHU

GUAM (Sunday, June 10)—(AP)—Carrier planes from the William F. (Bull) Halsey Jr.'s Third fleet heavily attacked Kanoya naval airfield on southern Kyushu Friday as two other naval strikes indicated stepped up fleet activity in the Far Western Pacific.

Pilots flying from Vice-Adm. John S. McCain's fast carrier task force, part of the Third fleet, destroyed 28 enemy planes in the airfield and two in the air in Halsey's third blast at Nippon in eight days.

Four American planes were lost, but all pilots were rescued.

Elsewhere in the Far Western Pacific, heavy fleet units bombarded shore installations on Okinawa Island, 300 miles southeast of Okinawa, and escort carrier pilots raided the Sakuma Island group. Both Okinawa and the Sakumimas are in the southern Ryukyus chain, of which blood-soaked Okinawa is the center.

Halsey, who heldly asserted his fleet could go into Tokyo bay is necessary, had sent strong forces of carrier planes to raid five or more airfields on Kyushu on June 2 and 3—just a week after he returned to active command of the Third fleet. Those attacks destroyed 26 Japanese planes and damaged ground installations.

The latest raid covered Kanoya airfield with bombing and strafing attacks which were concentrated on parked planes. Fleet Adm. Chester W. Nimitz communique reported today.

"Our pilots reported observing numerous fires and explosions."

Kanoya is one of the most important Japanese airfields, from which the Japanese have launched or staged their kamikaze (suicide) aerial assaults on American shipping in the Okinawa area.

Nimitz said the Japanese continued their kamikaze attacks Friday but caused no damage to American shipping. Twelve Japanese raiders were destroyed.

Sixty-seven enemy planes had been shot down in attacks Wednesday and Thursday, which damaged two small U. S. vessels.

Heavy losses, undoubtedly including battleships, cruisers and destroyers, bombarded ammunition dumps, radio installations, barracks, small craft facilities and other targets at Okinawa today.

Okina Datto has been hit previously. Although a small island, it undoubtedly has proven valuable to the Japanese in conducting American operations in the Ryukyus.

Escort carrier planes carried out the attack on the Sakumimas group Friday. That was one of a series of neutralizing raids which have been made on the Sakumimas by both American and British Pacific fleet forces since the beginning of the Ryukyus campaign.

In other aerial activity, a Navy search Marine sank an unidentified ship in the East China Sea and search divers sank a small cargo ship and damaged another in the Tushima Straits.

Marine aircraft continued their neutralizing raids on the Palau.

MUSTANG FIGHTER PLANES STRAFE NIPPON HOMELAND

GUAM, June 9—(AP)—Japan reported bullet-splattered U. S. Mustang fighter planes were strafing the Nippon homeland today in raids closely following a three-pronged Superfort attack.

Tokyo radio also reported that one of seven U. S. Mustangs was hit at home—less as the result of air raids.

The 21st bomber command here announced that between 100 and 150 of B-29s pounded aircraft factories at Nagoya, Nippon and Akashi, in the industrial heart of Japan, from medium altitude without fighter escort.

At Washington, the 20th air force announced that all planes returned safely and that only a few enemy fighters were encountered. Anti-aircraft fire was quite heavy but inaccurate, the announcement said.

Tokyo said the Superforts on their third daylight mission against the Japanese homeland in a week, struck between 7:30 and 8:30 a. m. Saturday, 6:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. Friday, U. S. Eastern war time.

The Mustang attack on the same general industrial area of Honshu island, Tokyo said, came about three hours later.

About 50 of the Iwo Jima-based Mustangs struck at unidentified targets between Nagoya and Osaka and immediately to the north, the broadcast said.

These new fighter and bomber blows came while Japan's diet parliament was meeting in extraordinary session to act on drastic war

He's not trying to qualify as "low man on a totem pole." He's just home-ward-bound T. Sgt. Charles M. Padlock of Oakland, Calif., arriving in Seattle with a totem pole—souvenir of his service in the Aleutians.

Padlock is one of the many important Japanese airfields, from which the Japanese have launched or staged their kamikaze (suicide) aerial assaults on American shipping in the Okinawa area.

Tokyo radio reports of homeless persons in five major cities, Tokyo, Nagoya, Yokohama, Osaka and Kobe, reached a total of 4,930,000 with an estimate today that 1,900,000 had been burned out in the first three cities during May alone.

Japan's total homeland population is listed by various sources as 72,000,000.

Premier Kantaro Suzuki told the diet that "no small number of people already" are victims of American raids. He and other leaders have previously warned that more and heavier attacks may be expected.

workers come first, then come light manual workers, white collar workers, and then dependents such as housewives and invalids.

Bread and potatoes are the mainstay of the ration, which is:

Potatoes, 400 grams (18 ounces) daily to all.

Bread, 300 to 600 grams daily (13.5 to 27.2 ounces).

Berlin is a city of flags—Allied flags. They hang from every house and building.

Downtown Berlin looks like nothing man could have contrived. Riding down the famous Frankfurter Allee, I did not see a single building for two miles where you could have set up a business even of selling apples.

The most familiar scene downtown was lines of women working to clear up the debris.

Most of the women look between 18 and 40. They are, generally, fairly well-dressed and certainly more of them have on silk stockings or ersatz silk than the women of London when I last saw them.

No Russian soldier was standing over these people. They are assigned their task by a German foreman and go about the work without Russian supervision. They do not seem to work hard. They laugh, joke and talk.

Their shift of four hours daily is taken when it suits them best and for this they are paid seventy pfennings an hour (7 cents at the U. S. military exchange rate).

Berlin seems to have an enormous number of bicycles. The Russians have confiscated some autos but I have seen plenty of Germans riding in cars and today I saw two with chauffeurs.

Fuel is scarce in Berlin and for this reason people have descended on parks and the outlying areas to gather wood.

Street scenes are intriguing. You see everything from the very poor to gorgeously gowned women with scarlet lips and pencilled eyebrows.

There are not many boys. Most of them are old, or young men, although in the last two days I have been seeing more and more young men who look as if they are just out of uniform.

An American uniform draws stares, but nothing is ever said to the wearer unless he stops. Then the Germans want to know mostly when the Americans will be in Berlin.

German civilians said the bombing was hell, and that most of the hell came when the U. S. air force was overhead.

"My God," one woman said to me, "here we go and make all these sacrifices to win the war. We bring food and other things from all the countries of Europe."

"When our rations got thinner, the government told us we were fortunate—that we should see Russia, the United States, and England. And now look—your fat and we're thin. What propaganda they gave us!"

Children play on burned out tanks and the wrecked transport of the German army. I was curious to see if they were playing war, but after watching several groups I was convinced they were not.

Little girls are playing dolls, and some of them have taken a violent interest in traffic direction. All of Berlin's traffic is directed by Red army girls—one on every corner waving yellow and red flags. Little Berlin girls have fashioned themselves traffic flags and often stand in the center of blocks imitating the Red army girls.

Adolf Hitler's chancellery, where high Nazis gathered to gloat when Germany was winning, now is a mound of stones and sticks and fantastic odds and ends of blasted glory.

The truly haunting sight of the chancellery I saw left over from the Nazi regime was in Hitler's garden. There in a pond a lone goldfish swam aimlessly in the stagnant waters.

Entering Hitler's office after walking through parts of the bombed and shell-swept chancellery building, the first thing that strikes you is the fantastic disorder and destruction. The office room is about 90 feet long, oblong, with one side lined with windows looking out over a garden of several acres.

All of these windows had been blown in and the room was two or three feet deep in debris and smashed furniture.

Directly before the windows was Hitler's long, blood-red marble map table. Where Hitler planned a conquest of the world the table was battered and chipped and the map was a long rolled-up rug was on the floor. The Nazis must have rolled it up, for Red soldiers said nothing in the room had been changed.

There are numerous books around measures, some dealing with the swelling air raid damage.

as urgent as the removal of Mussolini or Hitler."

Certain it is that the dangers of Spanish Fascism are not confined to Spain itself. Just for instance, there is her new important projection into world affairs because of her position between a million Arabs in her colonies and the new Axis league, which is growing in importance almost by the day.

And certain it is that if the Allies cannot do today as Mr. Thackeray wishes, the situation must not be permitted to lapse into the do-nothingness which he fears.

PREFABRICATED HOME
CONFERENCE SLATED

BATON ROUGE, La., June 9—(AP)—The spring conference of the Prefabricated Home Manufacturers' Institute will be held here June 19. It was announced today by W. Hamilton Crawford, manager of the Crawford company.

He said at least 20 members, representing 19 states and three Canadian provinces will attend.

Crawford said the meeting will be devoted to industry standards, government controls, and sale and distribution of manufactured homes.

Great, dark wooden doors with golden hinges and handles stand at the entrance to Hitler's office. Above three central doors are golden shields with Adolf Hitler's initials, "A H" on them. And inside is the battered Nazi swastika.

Upstairs are the rooms of various Hitler assistants. Each room is filled with scattered books, rubber stamps, soiled bed linen and pillows and overturned filing cases.

And then there are medals—littered up and down the broad hallways, on the steps, in the offices—all the medals of the Wehrmacht and the Third Reich. Hundreds of them, together with yards and yards of campaign ribbons. There are mother-of-pearl medals, too, and battle awards.

In one room is a stack of certificates which were to have been awarded to German mothers. Off in one corner is a battered high silk hat. Beside it is one of these certificates to a German mother. On top of the certificate was a pair of dirty Nazi underwear.

50 NAZI PRISONERS
HERE ON WORK DUTY

The arrival of 50 German prisoners of war at Selman Field last week to perform work details here was announced by post headquarters today.

Drawn from the prisoner of war camps at Ruston and West Monroe La., the prisoners are assigned to the salvage and post engineering departments. None are performing kitchen duties.

The prisoners here are under constant guard and are classified as Nazis, as distinguished from non-Nazis, it was revealed.

Fraternization with these prisoners of war is strictly forbidden and personnel at Selman are cautioned against talking with them, or offering cigarettes.

The prisoners perform a full work day starting at 7 a. m. until 4 p. m. No arrangements have been made to secure another allotment.

Most of the meteorites which strike the earth in the daytime arrive in the afternoon, while most of those landing in darkness arrive before midnight.

FIRST DISCHARGE
QUOTA IS FILLED

Selman Sends Last Of 190
Officers To Separation
Centers

It became Mr. Jones for 49 more officers at Selman Field this week as the machinery for discharging Uncle Sam's veterans under the point system began to grind out the last of its walking papers completing the first quota received here.

This brings the total to 190 officers and 24 enlisted men who have changed over from khaki to two-tone sport suits since V-E day let loose the flood of discharges.

Returning to civilian life with the final group of the first quota were four captains with the rest of the mass exodus composed of first lieutenants. The captains are Robert T. Ash of Cornell, Wis.; Stephen E. Pater of Chicago, Ill.; James A. Davis, Jr. of Syracuse, N. Y.; and Edward L. Keller of Dublin, Tex.

Selman Field at the same time was awaiting a second quota which would release more qualified enlisted men and officers who are qualified under the point discharge plan.

The steady flow of battle veterans to the separation centers has temporarily thrown a wrench into the machinery for the transfer of men over to civilian status. The war department ruled this week that men over 40 who have applied for discharge, and those non-essential enlisted men who are equal to or above the interim or critical scores and who are performing an assigned job will not be shipped to separation centers until such backlog of personnel presently on hand there are reduced.

It was not likely that these men will be sent to the separation centers until further notification from the war department.

The major transfer of officers went to Fort Dix, N. J. Fort Sheridan, Ill. received the second largest number. Leaving here were Lts. Peter Cole.

It was announced late last night that from January 1 through the last of May the civilian personnel of Selman Field worked a total of 80,886 man hours with only one complete time accident. It was added that it was the third consecutive accident-free month and that during the three months they worked a total of 608,338 man hours.

DETROIT RALLIES TO BEAT CHICAGO

Tiger Pitchers Lead Attack In 7-6 Victory; Yanks Beat Bosox

DETROIT, June 9.—(AP)—A pair of Detroit pitchers proved far more effective at bat than on the mound today as the Tigers came from behind with four runs in the ninth to edge the Chicago White Sox, 7 to 6, and hold the American League lead.

Les Mueller, Tiger starter, gave six runs and 13 hits in seven innings but let a two-run homer during a three-run Detroit rally in the fifth.

Zeb Eaton, who relieved Mueller in the eighth, allowed two hits and a pair of walks, but doubled off the left field wall, driving in two runs in the ninth and putting the tying marker in the second.

Bob Maier and Bob Swift had single ahead of Eaton in the surprise finish, both scoring on the relief pitcher's wallp. Skeeter Webb tied to sacrifice but was safe on a throw from Earl Caldwell's error, putting Ed Borem, running for Eaton, on third.

Eddie Mayo provided the payoff blow, a mighty triple to center, scoring Borem and Webb and pinning the Sox on Caldwell, who pitched to only two batsmen after relieving Joe Haynes in the ninth. Nobody was out when the winning run scored.

INDIANS EDGE BROWNS

CLEVELAND, June 9.—(AP)—Myril Hoag's batting and Ed Killeman's pitching gave the Cleveland Indians their second consecutive 2 to 1 victory over the League-Champion St. Louis Browns today before 3,500 fans.

Killeman, pitching six-hit ball, allowed his first run in 18 innings in annexing his second win against no losses, while Hoag doubled and scored his first time up, and then singled Al Chubuck home for the winning run with two out in the ninth.

Felix Mackiewicz followed Hoag's opening double with a two-ply shot for the first Indian run and St. Louis knotted it in the sixth when Al Hollingsworth, the losing pitcher, doubled and scored on Mike Kreevich's single off Don Ross' arm.

Catcher Frank Hayes of Cleveland caught his 20th consecutive game, and got one hit in four trips.

HOOP JR. WINS KENTUCKY DERBY

Hoop Jr., shown above as he romped in a sensational workout at Churchill Downs last Wednesday, yesterday won the Kentucky Derby by six lengths.

HOOP JR. WINS KENTUCKY DERBY; POT O'LUCK SECOND

Hooper Star Finishes Six Lengths In Front; Darby Dieppe Third

By Orlo Robertson

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 9.—(AP)—Showing the way over practically the entire mile and one-quarter, muddying going, Hoop Jr. today won the 71st and richest of all Kentucky Derbies so easily it appeared his 15 rival three-year-olds were in another race.

With Eddie Arcaro in the saddle for his third triumph in America's premier race, the son of Sir Gallahad 3rd carried F. W. Hooper's Blue and White Silks across the finish line six lengths in advance of Pot O'Luck, winner of the Kentucky Derby last year.

Mrs. W. G. Lewis, Darby Dieppe, hoping to be the first grey horse to carry off honors in the classic run for the roses, was third, beaten a half length for runner-up honors. Lt. Com. T. D. Bun's Air Sailor failed to land in the money picture by a neck as the other horses finished far back.

Running over a track soaked by three days of rain and under overcast skies that threatened all day long to drench the crowd of 65,000 at the Jacksonville, Fla.-owned, Hoop Jr. stepped out in front of the pack inside of the first sixteenth of a mile and never was headed.

Arcaro, who won in 1928 with Lawrin and four years ago with Whirlaway, rated Hoop along in front of the pack until he hit the head of the home stretch—a quarter-mile from the finish line.

Then, acting as if he was up on another Whirlaway, the veteran New York, Ky., Italian called on Hoop Jr. The race for the $64,850, winner's share of the gross purse of $26,875, was settled right there. When the Hooper boy crossed the finish line swinging in the bit he enjoyed the biggest margin of victory since Whirlaway won by eight lengths.

Hoop Jr. ran all but the first quarter mile on the rail, where the going was heaviest, but he stepped the distance in 2:07, the slowest time since Gallant Fox needed 2:07 3/4 to win over a muddy track in 1930. The last time the Derby was run over a muddy track in 1929, Clyde Van Dusen was clocked in 2:10 2/5.

Arcaro's victory, scored with a colt that cost Hooper $10,200 as a yearling, tied him for jockey honors in the Derby with Earle Sande and Isaac Murphy, each of whom rode three winners.

Hoop Jr. was the favorite parading to the post but by the time Reuben White gave them the word to go, the huge throng had established Pot O'Luck as its choice, apparently remembering the two previous triumphs of Wright's colors and one additional by trainer Ben Jones.

As the result, the well built colt trained by Ivan Parker, who him self twice rode in the Derby but never tasted the fruits of victory, paid $9.40, $5.20 and $4.00 across the board. A 32 place ticket on Pot O'Luck returned $4.80 and a show ducat $3.60. Darby Dieppe paid $4.00 to show.

A total of $776,408 was wagered on the race, surpassing the previous high of $684,870 bet in 1926 when Bubbling Over won.

Breaking from near the outside on the large field, Hoop Jr. needed only two cracks of Arcaro's whip to send him bounding past J. K. Housell's Byemebond. He swung straight down the middle of the track, where the going was much better, opened a two-length lead as he passed the judges' stand and then went over to the rail.

As Hoop Jr. rounded the first turn, with Byemebond length back, Alexis from Henry Langer's Christiana Stable was running smoothly in third place. Pot O'Luck, Darby Dieppe and Col. C. V. Whitney's well backed Jeep were far back, with the latter out in the middle of the track.

Swinging into the back stretch, Arcaro still had a tight hold on the reins with Byemebond holding to second place. Alexis found the post too swift and dropped back as Air Sailor moved into third and Fighting Step, owned by the Mullrugs farm, entered the scene. Meantime, Doug Dodson on Pot O'Luck and Melvin Calvert on Darby Dieppe were gradually closing in but Hoop Jr. still was a long way up front.

There was little change in their positions as Hoop showed the way out of the backstretch, rounded the final turn and pointed his nose toward the finish line. Almost as if he was shot out of a cannon, the Sir Gallahad offspring shook off his competitors. Byemebond quickly called quits as Pot O'Luck and Darby Dieppe came charging up to get into the money. They were running strongly at the end but so was Hoop Jr.

Jeep also closed fast to finish fifth but he was beaten four lengths by the fourth place Air Sailor. Then came Byemebond, Sea Swallow, Fighting Step, Burning Dream, bidding for P. R. Bradley's fifth Derby.

M'GONAGILL AND BRADFORD MEET FOR STATE GOLF TITLE

Shreveporter Trounces Bushnell, Alexandrian Shades Lt. Hebert

By Skipper Patrick

ALEXANDRIA, La., June 9.—(AP)—Jimmy McGonagill of Shreveport and Ray Bradford of Alexandria won their matches in the semi-final round of the Louisiana state golf tournament today and will meet tomorrow for the championship.

McGonagill, former Shreveport county club pro, defeated R. D. Bushnell, Elizabeth, 8 and 7, while Bradford defeated Lt. Junius Hebert, Lafayette, 2 and 1.

McGonagill played his usual steady game from tee-to-green and was one over par-36 on the front nine. He was par on the 10th and 11th holes to cinch the match.

Bushnell, who eliminated Bob Banta of Baton Rouge in the quarter final round, was badly off his game and spent half of the afternoon in traps. His card out showed a 7-over 43.

The Hebert-Bradford match drew the largest gallery of the tournament and a majority of the fans were pulling for the Pacific hero to win from the popular hometown contestant.

Hebert, who stopped a Jap bullet on two Jima four months ago, tired badly in his 21-hole quarterfinal round win over Lt. Bobby Cole of Baton Rouge and was over par in the afternoon play. His drive to the 11th green was in the woods and he got a double-bogie on the par four hole.

Bradford's putting was the best of the tournament. The 16-time Alexandria City champion sank a 30-foot putt on the ninth hole and cinched the match with a 25-foot birdie two on the 13th.

The Bradford-McGonagill championship match tomorrow brings together two veteran tournament participants.

McGonagill, a former pro, played in his first state amateur tournament at Shreveport last year, shortly after the U. S. Golf Association reinstated him to amateur ranks. He was eliminated in the semi-finals by Ross McDade of Shreveport.

The Shreveport sharpshooter won state professional titles at New Orleans in 1929 and at Lake Charles in 1930. A victory tomorrow would make him the first to win both the state amateur and professional titles.

He became an odd-on favorite to win the title after Freddie Haas, Jr., New Orleans, withdrew because of illness, and Defending Champion Ross McDade of Shreveport was upset by Bob Banta.

Bradford has competed in more than a dozen state amateur tournaments, but has never before reached the finals.

Lionel Hebert and Wilbur Larsenque, both of Lafayette, are scheduled to play for the first flight championship tomorrow morning. Hebert won over Sidney Maurras, New Orleans, 4 and 3, in the semifinals, and Larsenque trimmed P. H. Gilbert of Lafayette, 1 up.

H. F. "Slim" Ellis of Alexandria, second flight play finals today by defeating A. P. Nech, New Orleans, 1 up in 19 holes. Ellis got a birdie on the 274-yard par 4 hole to settle the match.

Albert Triche, Baton Rouge, won the third flight over C. O. Theriot, Lafayette, 3 and 1, and Alton Melancon, Baton Rouge, beat Junius Payne, Jr., Alexandria, 5 and 4, in the fourth flight.

CURTIS TO MEET KNOX THURSDAY

Champion Risks Crown At Kallio Arena; Dawson And Parker Booked

Jack Curtis, world's light-heavyweight wrestling champion, will risk his crown against the challenge of Buddy Knox, Evansville, Ohio, in the main event on Promoter Gus Kallio's weekly mat show here Thursday night.

Curtis was signed for a title match several days ago. Promoter Kallio reported, with his opponent to be the winner of last Thursday's scrap, but his "double cross" of Dawson last Thursday cost him sorely and he left the ring, followed by the lusty boos of a disapproving crowd.

All fans want this week is to see the champ give the challenger a good beating as a matter of revenge for Dawson.

"Knox should never have been permitted to get away with that second fall over Dawson," one disgruntled fan proclaimed, "but it's over with now and I only hope Knox gets what's coming to him next Thursday."

Curtis was facing a battler of near his own weight and physical strength and indications are that things will not go too easy for the champ. With the villainous streak finally popping out, Knox the past week the challenger can be expected to go all out this week in an attempt to win the crown by fair means or foul.

The Knox match last Thursday with Dawson, colorful Wisconsin battler, went just two falls. Knox won the first match fairly even, though Dawson appeared the best wrestler. Then in the second fall both going strong and using nothing but straight scientific wrestling tactics the battlers became tangled in a hold in which neither had the advantage yet couldn't give ground without aiding the other. By mutual agreement they decided to break the hold and shook hands to seal the agreement. Dawson broke cleanly, and Knox also relaxed his grip as Referee Allen Corbin turned away to the corner. While the referee's back was turned and before the disentanglement was complete, Knox suddenly grabbed Dawson by a leg and whirled him into a rocking chair. Dawson surrendered and then protested to the referee after the hold was broken, but had to leave the ring as the victim and hope for some other chance for a title match.

The championship battle will have a 90-minute time limit, two falls to win.

Domer Enoch (Red) Dawson, the man many of the customers will declare should be in the title duel with Curtis, will be back again on the same program for a semi-final scrap with Allen (Sailor) Parker, veteran brawler of Nashville, Tenn., who turned in a spectacular performance against Alberto Caropos, Navajo of Arizona, the past week in his first match here in several months.

The Dawson-Parker scrap will be over an hour time limit route with two falls to win.

SALESPeOPLE AID BOND DRIVE

Many Prizes Will Be Awarded In Course Of Campaign

Twin City retail salespeople are doing a swell job in selling Series E bonds in the Seventh war loan campaign, it was revealed by a survey made yesterday by the merchants division of the Chamber of Commerce. Series E bond sales by various retail salespeople in the Twin Cities follow: Palace, Miss Molly Michael, $4,825; Mrs. Blanche Florenstein, $6,400; Mrs. Faye P. Heard, $12,375; Miss Jennie Smith, $15,230; Miss Maebel Hood, $17,025; Standard Office Supply Company, Mrs. Ethel N. Jackson, $30,750; Ford Levi's Stationery Company, Mrs. W. B. Temple, $2,050; Family Shoe Store, Miss Marie Smith, $2,775; Field's Shoe Department, Miss Katie B. Brooks, $1,390; Keene's Shoe Store, Mrs. Ouida Elder, $5,300; D. Masur & Son, Mrs. F. L. Howne, $4,000; Hunt and Whittaker, Mr. S. E. Holloway, $6,175; The Toggery, Mrs. Grace Noble, $9,800; Pink the Tailor, Herbert Fink, $2,000; Sig Haas & Sons, Mrs. W. L. Lohman, $10,000; E. Jack Selig & Son, E. Jack Selig, $1,000; The Woman's Shop, Miss Lucille

Jones, $3,275; Lerner's, Mrs. Mary Lee Wunch, $1,525; Silverstein's, Mrs. E. R. Summermaker, $16,210; Fields, Mrs. Molly Abrams, $5,475; The Style Shop, Mrs. Helen McLaughlin, $5,000; Johnnie S. Elbert's, Mrs. Florence Powers, $1,000; M. Kaliski Jewelry Company, Mrs. Ruth Green, $2,375. Numerous other retail sales people sold bonds in amounts less than $1,000 the survey revealed.

Prizes offered by patriotic Twin City merchants and individuals to be awarded to retail salespeople in the sale of Series E bonds during the current Seventh war loan campaign are as follows:

A $200 "E" bond to the salesperson who sells the greatest number of individuals.

A $200 "E" bond will be awarded to the salesperson who sells the greatest value of "E" bonds.

A $100 "E" bond will be awarded to the salesperson who sells the second greatest value of "E" bonds.

A $50 "E" bond will be awarded to the salesperson who sells the third greatest value of "E" bonds.

The next 32 salespeople who sell the next highest value of "E" bonds will each receive a $25 "E" bond.

All retail salespeople who have attained the rank of vice admiral, which is awarded for the sale of $5,000 worth of E bonds, will be special honor guests at the big "Infantry Attack" show to be held in the Northeast Junior College stadium on June 19 and will be given special reserve seats for this occasion, it was announced yesterday by Co-Chairmen S. J. Rogers and C. D. Oakley of the Ouachita parish war finance committee. They expressed deep appreciation for the splendid manner in which retail sales people of the Twin Cities are cooperating in the sale of Series E bonds and urge a continue effort in these bond sales during the current campaign which will close on June 30.

Boyle's Notebook

By George Tucker
(Submitting for Hal Boyle)

PARIS—(AP)—One of the most polished operators in the British empire got a hand from Prime Minister, Churchill in Commons Monday. He is Gen. Sir Edward Spears, who helped Gen. Charles De Gaulle escape from France in 1940.

De Gaulle and Spears were great friends in those days, but now they no longer love one another.

Recently Spears was recalled as ambassador to Lebanon. To news correspondents in Paris, De Gaulle hinted Spears' withdrawal followed a suggestion from the French that he was no longer acceptable.

Churchill hinted right back that it was not true.

True or false, newspapermen who knew him in the Mideast remember Spears as a man with an extraordinary variety of interests and a first rate talent as a world juggler.

One of his prime interests was the study of crime. Once he told me there were two ways to commit a perfect crime.

"A Scotland Yard man told me this years ago," he told me. "The first way is to shoot a man with an ice bullet from an air gun. The air gun leaves no powder burns and the bullet melts, leaving no clue."

"The second way is to place radium on the floor of a room directly above where a man is sleeping. In two weeks the radium will kill him."

One night in December, 1943, Backlay Hudson, then OWI chief in Beirut, and I had dinner with Spears in the private dining room of the British embassy. After we were served a servant came in, solemnly spread a newspaper in the middle of the floor and then handed Spears a bowl of chopped meat and mush.

Spears' beautiful female dog Zita came bounding in an leaped on the ambassador, waiting for him to feed her. Spears placed the bowl on the spread newspaper and then, while Zita ate, we ate too. That's the unvarying ritual at Spears' house. No hand save his own ever gives Zita food.

Later, in the study while logs crackled in the fire, Spears told long interesting stories of life in the Channel Islands, of crime in Paris and of a hundred things that were part and parcel of the British empire where ever it exists all over the world.

He concluded with a story of a man he had seen on the streets that day, carrying a heavy burden.

"When I see a man with a piano on his back, I feel ashamed," he said, "because it shows that a man is sometimes cheaper than a donkey."

Whether Spears really was touched by the incident or only caught in the spell of his own words, I don't know. Not everyone liked him out there, but very few could ignore him.

TAX SUGGESTIONS TO BE HEARD SOON

BATON ROUGE, La. June 9—(AP)—State Sen. H. Alva Brumfield, chairman of the Louisiana revenue code commission, announced today that conferences for persons interested in offering suggestions or complaints to the structure of the Louisiana tax system will be heard here in about two weeks.

All individual or group conferences will be held in the state capitol annex where offices have been set up, he said.

Created by Act 245 of the 1944 legislature, the commission's purpose, Brumfield said, is to make a thorough study of the laws of the state. Following the study, the commission is to make a report recommending legislative action to simplify the wording and administration of tax laws with the view of improving domestic business and encouraging foreign business to locate in the state, to eliminate discriminatory taxes, and in general to create an integrated tax system.

Other members of the commission, appointed by Governor Davis, are Fred S. Hutson, Jr., attorney, Monroe; Leo S. Gunther, certified public accountant, New Orleans; A. L. Wedgeworth, building and loan official, Shreveport; and Leland Richardson, attorney, Baton Rouge.

FLIES THICKEST AROUND JAPANESE

Gls Say 'Those Japs Have Filthiest Camps In World'

By James Hutcheson

WITH THE 38TH DIVISION ON LUZON—(Delayed)—(AP)—Ask any GI where the most abominable fly swarms in the Pacific are found, and it is a nine to one bet he'll tell you they're around Japanese troop camps.

Ask a general and he'll tell you the same. As Maj. Gen. William C. Chase put it on a visit to the Wawa-Montalban dam site, after the foe had been driven from caves and tunnels:

"Those Japs have the filthiest camps in the world."

He brushed the flies away from his face as he said it. Doughboys around him were doing the same. Where the Japanese have pulled out or been killed, you don't want flies. It would be like trying to kill off the population of an ant hill one at a time. You have to fan them away.

This Wawa dam gorge is as beautiful a scenic spot as the Philippines can offer. The foaming cascade goes over the dam into a canyon where the water swirls around eroded boulders as big as houses. But the flies spoil the scenery.

The Japanese are careless about where they throw garbage. And a Japanese soldier's habit of personal sanitation leaves considerable to be desired.

The caves in which they hole up are damp, musty smelling spots.

There was a paradox in one of the caves along the trail out of rock along the Wawa dam gorge. The enemy had stacked eight cases of American-made soap at the entrance to a cave that went downward into the cliff so far you couldn't see its end. Seven of the cases were unopened. It was a brand best known for its advertisements about eliminating "B. O."

The doughboys, dirty from weeks of campaigning, soon were making use of the soap. During a lull in activities after the Japanese withdrew, Cpl. Quinto Bellucci of Scranton, Pa., and Pfc. Herbert Lewis of Colfax, La., were shaving in their helmets at the

LEGION TO SUBMIT HOSPITAL FINDINGS

WASHINGTON, June 9.—(AP)—The American Legion will submit its findings in a survey of veterans hospitals to the House Veterans Committee next Tuesday.

Announcing a full week of public hearing in the investigation into complaints of mistreatment of ex-service men, Chairman Rankin, Democrat, Mississippi, said today that other veteran organizations would be given an opportunity to express their views.

Meantime, Representative Kearney, Republican, New York, demanded immediate suspension of the army officer in charge of the Veterans hospital at Northport, N. Y., in a telegram to Brig. Gen. Frank Hines, Veterans administrator, Kearney said Col. Louis Verdel, head of the hospital, should be suspended and "charges brought against him without delay."

(At Northport, Verdel said he had no comment on Kearney's action).

There was no immediate statement from Hines.

The committee received testimony earlier this week that seven civilian employees at Northport had quit or been discharged and 13 soldiers court-martialed as a result of alleged abuse of patients.

Edward Odum, solicitor of the Veterans Administration, said he believed 13 of the 15 soldiers were convicted.

There was no testimony to the committee as to the nature of the alleged abuses.

Rankin said several veterans organizations have made extensive investigations of hospitals. Testimony is expected from the Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the disabled American veterans, and the Purple Heart organizations.

The investigation, he said, will continue despite the appointment of Gen. Omar Bradley to succeed Hines.

Mr. And Mrs. Young Observe Anniversary

Golden Wedding Anniversary Attracts Friends To The Home Of Mr. And Mrs. Young

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Young celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in the midst of their children, grandchildren and old friends in their home in West Monroe where they have been residing for many years. Mr. Young is 76 years of age and Mrs. Young is 74. They were married in Scotland, Mr. Young's birthplace in 1870. Mrs. Young was born in Cumberland, England.

They came to the United States in 1907 and resided for a short time in Orange, Tex., before coming to West Monroe.

The celebrations were radiantly happy on this occasion with friends dropping in during the receiving hours to wish them continued good health and happiness. Mrs. Young wore a becoming blue and white print model with corsage of orchids.

Yellow gladioli and South American lilies banked the reception suite and the dining room. The refreshment table, covered with handsome lace, was adorned with oval plaques of gardenias linked to crystal candle sticks with wide yellow satin ribbons. The luscious wedding cake, cut by the celebrants during the tea hour, centered the table. It was beautifully embossed and surmounted with figurines of a bride and groom.

Mrs. Glenn T. Gallaspy and Mrs.

J. R. Easton poured coffee and tea from silver services placed at either end of the table. They were assisted by Meses Mary Lou Young and Frances Easton, who passed trays laden with delectable edibles.

Calling during the receiving hours were: Mrs. Leo Garland, Mrs. "Shorty" Major, Mrs. T. M. Young, Mrs. E. L. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Tait, Mrs. C. T. Johnson, Mrs. F. A. Hoffman, Mrs. Doris McMillan, Mrs. R. G. O'Dell, Mrs. J. N. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. John F. McCormick, Mrs. Dell Agnew, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Easton, Mrs. J. R. Easton, Miss Frances Easton, Mrs. Faye P. Heard, Dr. and Mrs. G. T. Gallaspy and daughter, Carolyn, Mary Lou Young, Pat Young, Jack Taylor Young, Robert Young, Tom Young, Tommy, Billy and Bobby Young and James Taylor Easton.

All of their five children were present for the celebration with the exception of a daughter, Mrs. Lillie Snoddy.

Before departing, the guests were privileged to view the handsome gifts on display in a room set aside for the purpose and presented by those present and, also, a large number who found it impossible to attend.

CELEBRATE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Young of West Monroe kept open house when they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. The cutting of the cake was one of the highlights of the evening's pleasures.

Mrs. Lela Graves left Friday morning for Houston, Texas, where she will be the house guest for several weeks of her sister, Mrs. J. C. Cochran, and Mr. Cochran.

Pulitzer Prize Winners Named

Each year Pulitzer prize awards are made for the most meritorious public service rendered by an American newspaper; the best example of a reporter's work; the best example of correspondence; the best novel; the best book on the history of the United States; the best American biography; the best original play; the best editorial article; the best newspaper cartoon; and the best book of verse.

The winners of 1944 Pulitzer prizes were recently named. Novel—John Hersey's "A Bell for Adano" (a story of what America can and cannot do in Europe). Play—Mary Chase's "Harvey." History—Stephen Bonsal's "Unfinished Business" (an interpretation of Woodrow Wilson at Versailles). Biography—Russell Blaine Nye's "George Bancroft: Brahmin Rebel" (a full-dress biography of the Massachusetts gentleman who is generally considered the first major American historian and who, as secretary of the navy and for a while acting secretary of war during the war with Mexico, as American minister to Prussia during the Franco-Prussian war, and as friend and confidant of Abraham Lincoln, had a hand in the making of some history himself). Poetry—Karl Shapiro's "V-Letter and Other Poems."

Distinguished telegraphic reporting on national affairs: To James B. Reston of the New York Times (for his stories on Dumbarton Oaks). News photography: To Joe Rosenthal of the Associated Press (for his picture of the marines hoisting the flag on Iwo Jima). Music: To Aaron Copland's ballet "Appalachian Spring."

The Pulitzer prizes in Journalism and letters were established by the late Joseph Pulitzer, whose chief interest was journalism, and to this purpose he endowed the School of Journalism at Columbia University, which, together with certain trustees, awards each year to American prizes and scholarships ranging from $500 to $2,000.

On the whole the prizes have been widely distributed, and the award is one of the highest honors an American author can receive. Booth Tarkington, Willa Cather, Edna Ferber, Louisa May Alcott, Caroline Miller, John Steinbeck, Upton Sinclair, Martin Flavin, Maxwell Anderson, Robert Sherwood, Carl Van Doren, and Edna St. Vincent Millay have been among the winners.

Irma Orr, Glenora, has been elected to succeed Voncill Hill, Cottor Valley, a member of the June graduating class, as president of the Teel home economics club, members of the group have announced.

Other officers, chosen to serve with Miss Orr for three tri-mesters, include Elizabeth Chapman, Ruston, vice president; Margaret Haworth, Alexandria, secretary; Laverne Bird, Sicily Island, treasurer, and Betty Jo Hill, Vivian, reporter.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Lomle and son Leonard, have returned from a visit with relatives in Tucson, Ariz.

Selman Field Nursery Opened

Children Of All Military Personnel Will Be Admitted To 'Baby Barracks'

One of the most ambitious projects to be undertaken by the Army wives of Selman Field is the new nursery which is now opened for all the military personnel of the field. The nursery will be known as the "Selman Field Baby Barracks," and is located at 116 1/2 South Grand Street. The telephone number is 4521. The Bombardiers' Wives Club had opened a nursery at this location, and it was called "Bombardiers' Baby Barracks." This club has now given the nursery equipment to the Volunteer Utilization Branch, which is under the direction of Mrs. Leslie Perry, director of volunteer group and a member of the Officers' Wives Club. This group includes the wives of all military personnel.

The nursery staff and equipment is being expanded and meets and express need for military families. It is hoped that, with competent workers in charge, mothers with small children will avail themselves of the opportunity for safe care for them.

A council has been selected and has drawn up plans to be followed by those using the nursery. Chairman of the council is Mrs. Temple Looney, a member of the Bombardiers' Wives Club, who will represent them. Mrs. J. H. Carroll, from the Exalted Men's Wives Club, will have charge of the finances. Mrs. H. V. Silvers, a member of the Cadets' Wives Club will have charge of the property. Mrs. C. A. Baril, a director of the Officers' Wives Club, has charge of the publicity, and Mrs. J. R. Kline, a member of the Bombardiers' Wives Club, has been named the assistant chairman of the Volunteer Utilization Branch, and will also be a council member. Much credit for the nursery should be given to Mrs. Leslie Perry who had the vision to see the need for something of this kind, and has worked untiringly to get it started.

The attendants in charge are Mrs. Troy Bishop, and Miss Pearl Maxwell. Mrs. Bishop has had nurses' training and had done hospital duty at Corpus Christi, Tex. She formerly had a day nursery of her own. Miss Maxwell has had special college training in nursery work, holds a certificate for teaching elementary school and has had experience in nursery schools.

There are a few general rules which have been found to be necessary. The nursery hours are to be from 12 o'clock noon until 11 p. m. the five week days. Saturday hours are from 12 noon until 1 a. m. and the nursery will be closed on Sundays. The fee will be 25 cents per hour. There will be a fine of one dollar for every hour or fraction on an hour the children are left after closing time.

For the protection of all, no child with a cold or rash or who shows symptoms of illness will be accepted. All babies and children to six years of age are admitted.

Mothers are requested to bring a wash cloth and sheet or blanket if the child is to be put to bed. The mother must bring milk in a bottle if necessary and leave full instructions for feeding. Children may be fed milk and cookies if they are provided by the mother. No other food can be given.

Mothers of infants are requested to bring a minimum of five diapers and a change of clothing. The Selman Field authorities, upon investigation, found that there is adequate protection against fire hazards. Since Selman Field opened mothers have many times expressed a need for a nursery and it is hoped that now, with adequate facilities and an excellent staff many people will take advantage of this opportunity.

Mrs. W. M. Washburn accompanied Mrs. Wharton Brown and her son, Buck, Wednesday to Baton Rouge where she will visit Mr. and Mrs. William Gladney. She will have the added pleasure of seeing her grandson, Seaman Billy Gladney, who is visiting his parents.

THE Palace

HONORED BY D. A. R.

Miss Shirley Kaplan, member of this year's senior class at the Neville High School and Miss Mona Cleveland, member of the Ouachita Parish High School senior class were selected to represent Monroe at the Good Citizen Plagrimage sponsored each year by the D. A. R. They were selected for this honor because of their high scholastic attainments, splendid character and other qualities that go for good citizenship.

Purely Personal

What will members of women's organizations do during the vacation months just ahead? Having asked a dozen or more club women that casual question we discovered that the great majority of them will try to carry out some of the things they have studied during the year or will see that some of the things they have done during the club year will keep right on being done. Almost woman's club in the Twin Cities had fine, constructive, programs pointing the way to international, national and state programs during the club year. We were reminded by several club women of the importance of looking after the hundreds of boys and girls who are being tossed upon the world every summer and who, unguided, become a menace to their localities and sooner or later, swell the rosters of the juvenile court.

Throughout the club year members of clubs have heard dozens of talks on work with youth. Now is the time to cash in all those. Notes on what to do with the pre-delinquent are useless until they have been applied to the problems of a group or even a single child.

War work, whether it be USO or Red Cross must go on of course. Every one is tired of the war, tired of not having the food one wants, the clothes one likes, the trips we have been accustomed to but nevertheless the time has not yet come to sit idly by. The work of the club woman must continue through the summer even though their programs are completed for the year.

With new officers appointed for the next season this seems to be a good time to discuss the work confronting the press chairmen of the various federated clubs. Very often the question is asked, "Why don't our notices appear in the paper?" These are the same women who think they should have the usual quantity of butter, who growl about the quality of stockings. Some of them have almost driven us to ask most deadly of all questions: "Don't you know there is a war on?"

Immediately if a notice fails to appear, or doesn't appear on Sunday or Wednesday or Friday as per request, the rate one gets busy on the telephone with all the clerks including the one about their father and their grandfather having taken the New Star and they themselves a publisher for years and years.

We are most sincere in our efforts to help with war work so long as it is fresh and new and not something dragged up from the past to give support to present news which is too limp to carry its own weight. The world is full of tremendously important events and a little clerical notice is of comparatively small import in a world full of dying men and weeping women.

When the new club year starts and the inexperienced press reporter takes up her work it will be a pleasure to help her in every way possible but in turn she must have consideration for members of the press and not go off the deep end and if her calendar notice fails to appear.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Lois Fowler, daughter of Mrs. J. C. Campbell of Los Angeles, Calif., and Sgt. George Tolar Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Tolar of Los Angeles, formerly of Monroe. The ceremony May 18 took place at the Church of Christ, of this city, with Rev. Charles C. Lancaster, officiating.

The attendants were Mrs. Vera Washam, and L. L. Tolar, sister and brother of the groom. Sergeant Tolar has been with the armed forces for the past two years, during which time he served overseas in the European theater of war as a radio operator and gunner on a Flying Fortress of the Fifteenth AAF. He is at present a gunnery instructor and stationed at Gulfport, Miss.

Pow Wow Staff Enjoys Banquet

Banquet At Frances Hotel Is One Of The Highlights Of Commencement Week

Serving as a perfect climax to the year's work, staff members of the Northeast Junior College newspaper, Pow Wow, and special guests were privileged to attend a banquet in the butterfly room of the Frances Hotel. The affair, which has become one of the happy traditions of the college, was an occasion that will be long remembered for sheer enjoyment and artistry that marked every detail in its planning.

Spring blossoms in pastel shades were used effectively on the table and in urns placed at vantage points throughout the spacious room. Central decors were epergnes filled with blue hydrangeas, pink ranunculus and feverfew. These artistic arrangements were flanked on either side by low bowls containing roses, gardenias and sweet peas. Specimen roses that were placed carefully at intervals on the damask cloth between the containers of blossoms enhanced the effectiveness of the decorative theme.

Adding gaiety to the occasion were the clever place cards designed by Miss Alice Chilton, associate editor. They displayed something characteristic of each guest's work or personality. Also at each cover was an attractive program bearing the caption, "Eight Times All-American," the title which the paper holds as a result of its rating by the National Collegiate Press Association. Marked by originality, its page titles and menu were presented in journalistic terms which increased the merriment of the evening. The last page termed, "By-Lines," gave for autographs that should serve to conjure up happy reminiscences in years to come.

Miss Florence Abrams, editor-in-chief of the Pow Wow, served as a gracious toastmistress. She was wearing a long billowy pink frock and a corsage of pink carnations, a gift from the staff. She introduced the following program:

Invocation, Mrs. Harry Lemert; epilogue, Miss Jo Layne Jarrell; vocal selection, Miss Audrey Langlois and Mr. Raymond Henry; reading, Miss Jackie Rodwig; the future, Miss Alice Chilton. Incomer talks by several special guests added to the atmosphere of good fellowship.

Among the surprises of the evening were presentations of gifts to Miss Abrams and Mrs. Annie Lee West Stahl, faculty adviser of the paper. On behalf of the staff, Mrs. Stahl presented a dainty pearl necklace to Miss Abrams as a token of appreciation for the outstanding work which she had accomplished as editor of the paper. Miss Elizabeth Beadles represented the staff when she made the presentation of a handsome sterling cream and sugar set to Mrs. Stahl, who has served as adviser for 11 years.

Following the banquet the guests completed the evening's enjoyment with a theater party. Members of the Pow Wow staff, present for the occasion, were:

Misses Florence Abrams, Alice Chilton, Maxine White, Anita Donna, Ellen Haynes, Virginia Caldwell, Mary Sue Luckett, Jackie Rodwig, Addie Mae McGough, Elizabeth Beadles, Jo Layne Jarrell, Audrey Langlois, Sue Tarver, Helen Walker, Messers, Oma Fleming, Erskine Currie, David Russell, Raymond Henry, Frank Cline, Malcolm Steen and Mrs. Annie Lee West Stahl. Special guests included: Mrs. Harry Lemert, Miss Mary Clay, Mrs. H. C. Schiller, former editor of the Pow Wow, Lt. Paul W. Hodnette, former staff member, Miss Elcona Brinsmade, former business manager, Miss Yvonne Hynum, editor of the Chachaboula, Northeast Junior College yearbook, and Miss Carrie Mae Stephenson, faculty adviser of the yearbook staff.

Interest Of Friends In This City Centered In Marriage Of Lieutenant McClary

Lt. Samuel H. McClary, United States marine corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. McClary of Fremont, Neb., formerly of this city, has a wide circle of friends in this city, the former home of the McClary family, who will learn with interest of his recent marriage. Mr. McClary was secretary of the Chamber of Commerce in this city for a number of years.

An account of the wedding appeared in the Fremont Tribune as follows:

Lt. (jg) Ida Belle Morris, navy nurse corps of Memphis, Tenn., and Marine First Lt. Samuel H. McClary, of 219 West Eighth street, Fremont, were married at 1:30 o'clock in the Protestant chapel at this marine corps air station. Lt. Com. H. M. Day, Protestant chaplain, read the wedding ceremony in the presence of a number of friends.

The altar was banked with pink gladioli and fern, and white candles in gold candelabra flanked the gold cross in the center of the altar. On each side were tall floor baskets of white gladioli and fern.

Marine Cpl. Constance Gordon, chaplain's assistant, West Hartford, Conn., played Cadman's "At Dawning" at the organ before the ceremony.

The bride entered the chapel to the strains of the bridal march from Wagner's "Lohengrin." She was preceded down the aisle by Ensign Betty MacRae, a navy nurse, Homosassa, Fla., who was maid of honor. Both wore the formal white uniform of the navy nurse corps. The bride carried a bouquet of white carnations topped with red rosebuds tied with pink satin ribbon. The bouquet of the maid of honor was of pink carnations and rosebuds tied with pink satin ribbon.

At the close of the ceremony, Lt. and Mrs. McClary left the chapel as Corporal Gordon played Mendelssohn's "Wedding March."

A wedding reception was held in the lounge of the Junior Bachelor Officers quarters. A three-tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom centered the serving table. On each side of the centerpiece were tall white candles in crystal holders.

Mrs. McClary, daughter of Harris Morris, of Warren, Ark., is on duty at the station dispensary in the eye, ear, nose and throat department. She graduated from the school of nursing at Methodist Hospital in Memphis and for eight years prior to joining the navy nurse corps was an office nurse. Before being assigned to Cherry Point she served for 13 months at the naval hospital in Memphis.

Lieutenant McClary, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. McClary, of Fremont, is serving as welfare and recreation officer and as a navigator with a unit of the Ninth Marine Aircraft Wing here. He served for 18 months overseas with a marine aircraft group.

during which time he was commissioned a second lieutenant on February 2, 1943. He was graduated from Ouachita Parish High School, in Monroe, La., in 1932 and attended Midland College, Lieutenants McClary was a student of Louisiana State University in the school of business in 1933 and 1936. Before joining the marines on July 7, 1941, he was associated with his father in the mercantile business in Fremont.

Conference Of Deep Concern To Women

Women the world over are deeply concerned over what goes at the San Francisco conference. Anne Hartwell Johnstone, the National League of Women's Voters consultant to the U. S. delegates at the conference says:

V-E day was the major event of the third week of the San Francisco conference. Although marked by only a one-minute pause in homage to the men, living and dead, who won the opportunity to create a lasting peace, V-E day was responsible for speeding up of the conference tempo and a general ebb of foreign ministers.

This week the vexatious Polish question was withdrawn from conference discussion on the revelation of the arrest of 16 Polish in Russia. It is assumed here the problem will now be settled in the Big Three conference.

The sudden emergence of the regional security issue as a paramount conference controversy developed at the week's end. The insistence of the Latin American states that the Pan-American system—particularly the Chapultepec security agreement of the recent Mexico City conference—should operate without reference to the United Nations security council, has led to consideration of various compromises. Latin America, fearing communism, is wicred that Russia might veto the security council action against Communist inspired aggression. This is believed to be the root of the problem. The Latin Americans cite the Big Five approval of European bilateral security agreements, operating outside the security council as justification for their demands. They do not always admit the fact that these European agreements apply only to present enemy states. The most likely compromise, based on the principle of self-defense, would permit regional action under the Pan-American system in the event the world security council fails to act.

The League of Women Voters, along with many other supporters of the past development of Inter-American peace machinery, strongly favor the subordination of any regional machinery for maintenance of peace to a world system. This is also the position of the United States delegation at the conference. For the American republics to demand exclusive jurisdiction over hemisphere disputes in other areas of the world—Europe, the Middle East or Asia—and would, in effect, nullify the fundamental concept of Dumbarton Oaks, that war anywhere is the concern of all nations.

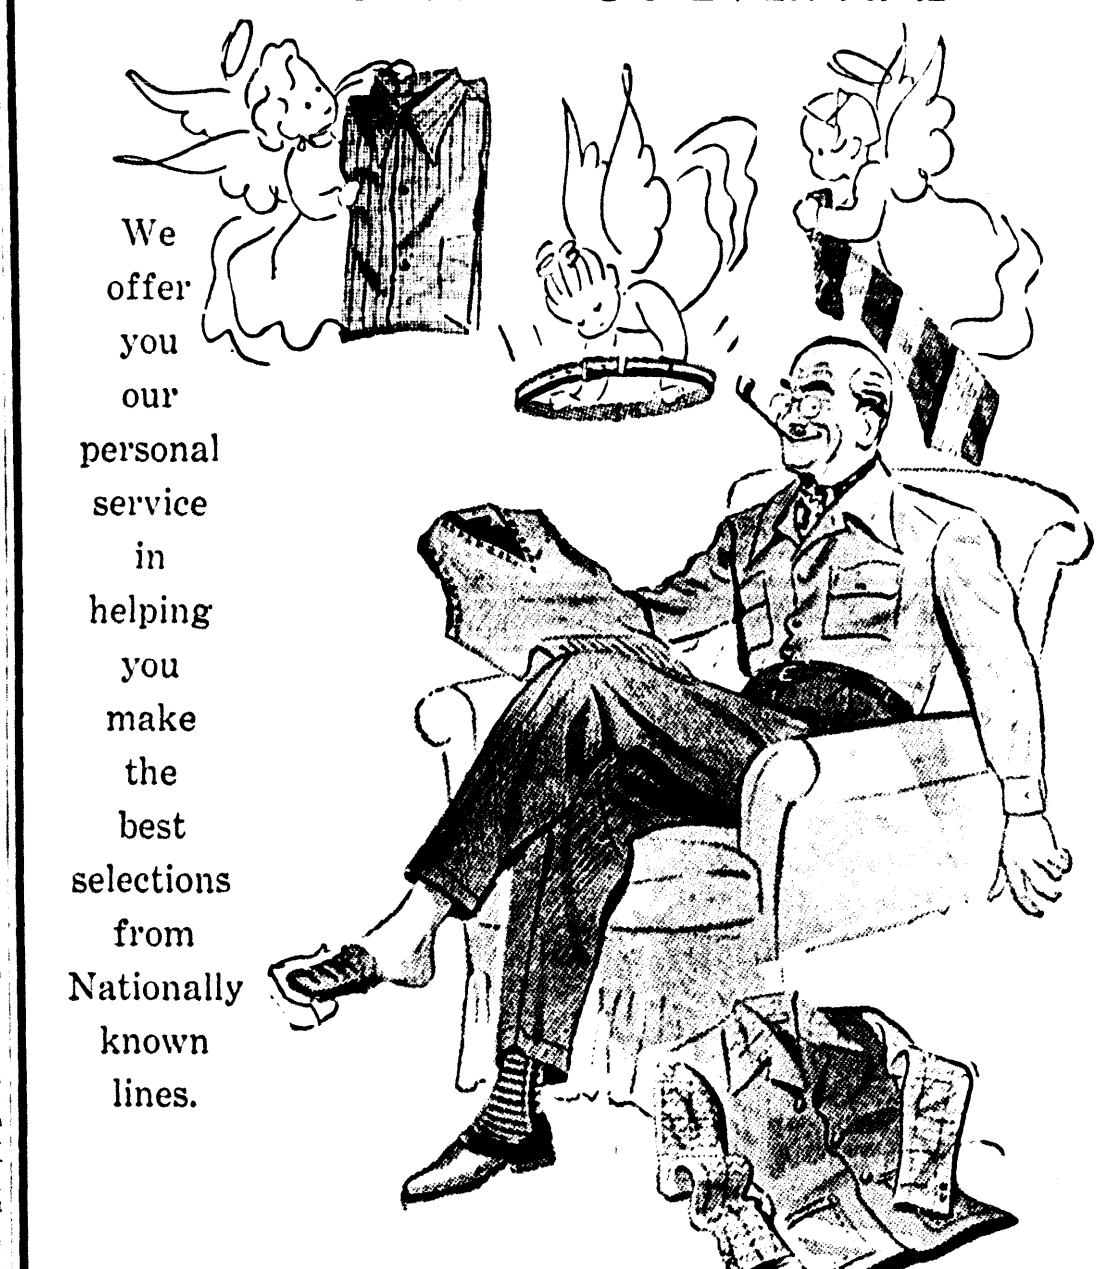

Another development of the past week is the agreement to rate the economic and social council as one of the principal organs of the new organization. Resulting from pressure by smaller nations and private groups, this action marks a major trend to prevent emphasis wholly on the police function of the United Nations, and to focus attention on the need for continuing efforts to solve economic and social problems as basic causes of war. The real significance of the move cannot be judged until evidence of how the present general and vague purposes and duties of the economic and social council are to be implemented.

Charles E. Turrentine, Ruston, has been elected president of the YMCA chapter at Louisiana Tech, and Erlo Read, Tallulah, has been named vice-president. Dr. J. O. Van Hook, faculty sponsor of the group, has announced. Mr. Turrentine succeeds Norman E. Jacobs, A. S. Vestal, N. Y., who is leaving Tech after this trimester. Neill Matthews, Monroe, is secretary, and Fowler Caruthers, Winnfield, is treasurer of the group. These officers will continue in their posts.

Miss Gremillion Weds J. T. Kane

Prominent Nuptial Event Unites Young Couple At St. Matthew's Church

Claiming prominence among the early summer nuptial events was the marriage of Miss Majorie Ann Gremillion, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Saul F. Gremillion and Jerome Thomas Kane Jr., son of Mrs. Julia Kane of Baltimore, Md. The ceremony took place at St. Matthew's church, June 8, at 6:30 in the evening with Right Rev. Monsignor J. V. Plaque, a cousin of the bride's, officiating.

The church was flooded with candlelight and florally adorned with white gladioli and white carnations overflowing from tall floor baskets and other receptacles placed in the background. Myriad cathedral tapers turned in white candelabra on the altar and along the aisle leading to the altar.

While the guests were assembling a brilliant organ concert was rendered. Miss Betty Rinehart, the soloist, sang in lovely voice, Ave Maria.

The bride's attendants, Mrs. Dorothy Waldrop Laurent, Miss Marilyn Rolfe and Miss Marjorie Bradley, wore summery frocks of mousseline de sole in the pastel shades. They were fashioned drop shoulder style with short puffed sleeves and long full skirts. They carried arm bouquets of old-fashioned flowers in pastel shades tied with long lengths of var-colored sat in ribbon.

The flower girl, Nancy Star Beard, wore a gown of pastel mousseline fashioned similar to the gowns worn by the other attendants. The ring bearer, Tony Beard, wore a white linen suit and carried the rings on a white satin cushion.

The bridegroom's attendants were Sgt. Earl M. Torgensen, Sgt. Andrew K. Reid and Sgt. Frank H. Tilley. The best man was Eugene H. Donolen.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore the traditional white satin wedding gown fashioned along classic lines. The tight fitting basque had a sweetheart neckline and the sleeves, long and tight fitting, came to a point over the hands. The skirt, long and full, ended in the court train. Her veil, falling beyond the hemline of her train, was caught to the hair with a coronet or orange blossoms. For something old she wore her mother's antique diamond ring and a string of pearls. All the traditions were observed including "something old and something new, something borrowed and something blue." She carried an ivory prayer book marked with a cluster of white orchids.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Gremillion home on North Third street. The reception suite and dining room, were adorned with beautiful flowers.

Mrs. Gremillion, extending courtesies, wore a white lace model with corsage of pink carnations. Miss Genevieve Gremillion of New York City, sister of the bride, also assisted in the courtesies. She wore a pink linen model with black accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

The bride's table in the dining room was overlaid with point Venice lace and centrally adorned with the three tiered wedding cake. Plaques of garlands at either end of the table encircled silver candelabra supporting white tapers. A variety of confections including individual wedding cakes and frosted frappe were served by Miss Dorothy Dalton, Miss Gussie Jacola and Misses Louise and Helen Devereux.

The bride traveled in a smart tailleur of black and white linen with black accessories and a corsage of orchids.

The bride is a graduate of St. Matthew's High School and attended Northeast Junior College. The bridegroom is a graduate of St. Edward's School, Baltimore, Md., and attended Baltimore Polytechnic Institute. Before joining the armed forces he was associated with the Kane Bag Company of Baltimore.

Out-of-town guests were Miss Genevieve Gremillion of New York, Mrs. Ernest Cortrecht and son, Wallace, Mr. S. P. Gremillion of Alexandria, and Miss Sara Hays of Vicksburg, Miss.

Expecting a Baby?

Mother's Friend helps bring ease and comfort to expectant mothers.

MOTHER'S FRIEND is an exquisitely prepared emollient, is useful in all conditions where a bland, mild anodyne massage medium in skin lubrication is desired. One condition in which women for more than 70 years have used it is an application for massaging the body during pregnancy. It helps keep the skin soft and pliable, thus avoiding unnecessary discomfort due to dryness and tightness. It refreshes and tones the skin. An ideal massage application for the numb, tingling or burning sensations of the skin, for the tired back muscles or cramp-like pains in the legs. Quickly absorbed. Delightful to use.

Mother's Friend Highly praised by users, many doctors and nurses. Just ask any druggist for Mother's Friend—the skin lubricant. Try it tonight.

Tea-Shower For Georgine Welch

Charming Courtesies Extended By Five Hostesses At McGuire Club House

One of the loveliest courtesies extended Miss Georgine Welch during her engagement days was the tea at the McGuire club house with Mrs. Fred Thatcher, Mrs. Herschell Gentry, Mrs. R. B. Henry, Mrs. J. C. Stewart and Mrs. John P. Lewis, hostesses.

The lounge of the club, in beautiful floral attire, supplied a decorative background for the hostesses in summery attire and their guest of honor who wore one of her lovely troussou frocks, a blue chiffon model. Mrs. Georgine Welch, the bride-elect's mother wore a pink crepe model and her sister, Miss Oudie Welch, wore a blue eyelet embroidery model. They all wore flowers in their hair sent to them by their hostesses.

A coterie of young girls, Misses Dorothy Ann Mitchell, Mary Sue Smith, Anna Joyce Coates, Jean Gentry, Betty Henry, Beverly Thatcher and Ann Lewis, assisted in serving delicious refreshments, including individual wedding cakes. Frosted fruit frappe was served throughout the receiving hours.

The tea table was developed exclusively in white and silver with gardenias in silver containers supplying the floral note. A mammoth crystal punch bowl imbedded in gardenias formed the central decor.

The beautiful gifts presented to Miss Welch at this time were on display. The hostesses presented Miss Welch with a gift of silver.

VOCATIONAL SCHOOL OFFERING COURSES

The Ouachita Valley Vocational school is offering a summer school of 10 weeks starting June 18. The curriculum will consist of the following trades: aircraft engines, auto mechanics and machine shop.

The courses are open to the general public free of charge. Classes will begin at 9 and close at 4 p. m. with an hour off for lunch. Individuals may take the full six hours or any part thereof. The aircraft engines and auto mechanics courses will specialize in carburetor repair. Any person wanting to learn or improve himself in this type of work may enroll in this class. The machine shop course will consist of lathe, drill press, shop and milling machine operations. Anyone interested in this summer school work should contact the Ouachita Valley Vocational School, Slash street, West Monroe, La. The phone number is 6220.

FREEZE PLANT MAY OPEN IN AUGUST

The deep freeze locker plant now under construction by the Louisiana Ice Service Company will probably be placed in operation during the month of August it was announced Friday by the Chamber of Commerce office.

The last installment of equipment to be placed in the plant will be shipped from the factory June 19. It was announced by the Louisiana Ice Service Company officials, and will be installed during the month of July, so it will be possible to open the plant in early August. George D. Holland announced.

REGISTRATION WILL CONTINUE

Students Can Still Enter N. J. C. By Paying Late Fee

Registration for the summer term at Northeast Junior College will continue next week by students paying a late fee of $5. Final date to enroll for college credit is Saturday, June 16, announced A. L. Tatum, registrar.

Regular class work will begin Monday, June 11 and the term will end August 11, thereby allowing about a two month vacation period for those who plan to continue college work or to accept jobs in the fall.

In a recent student assembly several members of the faculty pointed to the fact that there is no vacation in war. Since education is a definite part of the war effort, they continued, persons who have an opportunity to attend college should do so as a patriotic duty. The training that they will receive will add to their efficiency and equip them to do a better job on the home front.

Courses already scheduled include some that were designed especially for those who expect to enter military service. Several classes in mathematics and science are available to young men who need to get as much information as possible in these subjects before they go into military training. Required work in physical training for men is closely correlated with fundamentals of military science and tactics.

For out-of-town students, dormitories are available for both men and women who may take their meals at the college cafeteria if they desire.

The Ouachita parish bus system will continue to operate for students if the number is sufficient to justify the use of this means of transportation.

Classes not already scheduled may be formed if the demand is great enough, Mr. Tatum said. Those who are interested in additional courses should confer with him.

PYTHIAN SISTERS TO HONOR FLAG

Temple No. 1 of the Pythian Sisters, will meet Monday at 8 p. m. at which time a Flag Day service will be held. All members who have relatives in the armed services will have names called with the men or women who are engaged in the war from their family recognized by the assemblage. Refreshments will be served.

STATE P.T.A. MEETING SLATED

Local Delegation Will Be Headed By Mrs. W. S. Vincent

Mrs. W. S. Vincent, first vice-president of the Louisiana Parent-Teacher Association, is attending a conference of directors in New Orleans from Monday, June 11 through June 13. Other P.T.A. officers from Monroe who will be present at the meeting are Mrs. F. C. Bennett, president, president of the Twin Cities Council, and Mrs. M. L. DeFreese, director of the fifth district. Mrs. Vincent met with members of the executive committee on June 9 to discuss plans for the coming school year that were not considered at the general board meeting.

Mrs. Walter Buhlig, national field secretary of the P.T.A. from Chicago, will direct the institute for the 11 directors who handle plans for the various districts of the state. The directors will receive at the meeting handbooks which Mrs. Vincent has prepared to serve as sources of study for local groups. Directors will bring various types of material which they consider may be helpful in exchanging ideas relative to program making and promoting work in the numerous districts.

Mrs. Buhlig came to Louisiana last September where she spent several weeks in touring the state to hold P.T.A. meetings with a view toward advancing the ideals and outlining activities of the national organization. Her program of activities included district conferences and a three-day directors meeting in Monroe. She is equipped with a rich background of information and experience in the P.T.A. field where her duties have covered local, district and national phases. She is one of four national representatives who do this type of field work.

The New Orleans conference will be open to presidents of councils as well as to directors. In addition to Mrs. DeFreese, the list of directors includes: Mrs. Vesta Tanguis, New Orleans; Mrs. Paul Godeaux, Reserve; Felix Derauche, Opelousas; Mrs. L. H. Northcutt, Shreveport; Mrs. W. L. M. Hammond, Mrs. O. A. Hebling, Lake Charles; Mrs. W. Brown, Alexandria; Mrs. J. D. Murry, Ruston; Mrs. Fred Benton, Baton Rouge; Mrs. J. L. Jackson, president of the Shreveport council, will attend the meeting, as will presidents of the New Orleans and Lake Charles councils.

FINLEY DOUGHTY HONOR GRADUATE

Finley Doughty, son of Mrs. Blanche Doughty of Monroe, was a member of the graduating class at the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis. He ranked 42nd in the class which comprised 1,000 members. He had been commanding officer of his company.

He reached Monroe Saturday morning and will remain here for a month after which he will be assigned to overseas duty.

KNITTING CHAMP BEDRIDDEN

Mrs. J. A. McQuiston has made a record for herself as knitter that has elicited the admiration of the Red Cross Chapter here. Although bedridden, she has over 3,000 hours of knitting to her credit. She has knitted since 1917 when the Ouachita chapter was first formed and has continued through the years. She is now 81 years of age but is still going strong. She has fashioned 150 helmets and made many other articles for the soldiers. She never stops in the midst of hot weather in summer from continuing her consuming pastime.

FOSTER HOMES TO MEASURE UP

Must Meet Certain Required Standards, State Officials

Home that meet the standards prescribed can be licensed by the Ouachita Parish Department of Public Welfare to board foster children. They need love, care and training that a good foster home can provide. A review of these standards and help in locating more good foster homes is desired. These are the standards that are listed:

1. Successful experience with children—own or other in relationship comparable to home situation.
2. Cheerful, sympathetic atmosphere, foster parents able to understand the child nature and needs; harmonious with each other.
3. All members of family free from communicable disease.
4. No stated amount of education required, but native intelligence and good sense vital.
5. Home must have a dependable income sufficient to provide a comfortable living without depending on children's board.
- 6a. Housing must provide light, heat, ventilation, sanitation, and adequate space for the family and additional child or children.
- 6b. Homemaking standards are cleanliness, order, proper preparation of food, and homelike, comfortable surroundings.
7. The household should have both father and mother.
8. The neighborhood must be healthful with sanitary conditions and outdoor play space. Good neighborhood influences. Home must be accessible to church and school.
9. Foster parents must be upright in business and personal matters.

desire to give service and help children.

12. The home must be willing to work with the child-placing agency and accept supervisory visits in the home.

ESCAPEES FROM CAMPS CAPTURED

Three Italian prisoners of war who escaped Thursday night from a POW camp at Monticello, Ark., were arrested early Saturday by military personnel in a cemetery three miles from the camp.

Charles E. Weeks, F. B. I. agent in New Orleans, listed their names as Lorenzo Traverso, Gaetano Rossi and Felice Cosentino.

Two German prisoners of war, who escaped from the camp at Bastrop, were captured in the Alexandria Missouri Pacific yards by state police Saturday morning. The men were turned over to the officials of the army prison headquarters at Carlisle, Livingston. The men are Fiedler, Joseph and Hodde Fritz. The former had his leg broken in three places which is believed to have occurred as he stole a ride in a freight car.

It is said that children inherit traits of their grandparents more than they do those of their parents.

"CLOSE-UPS" of your infantry the greatest fighting men in the world SEE THEM IN ACTION

Tuesday Night
JUNE 19th

Northeast Junior College
Stadium

●An Infantry automatic rifle team is ready to go into action as part of the Army Ground Forces demonstration, "Here's Your Infantry."

●The 60 mm. Infantry mortar is put into action by a demonstration crew as one of the Infantry weapons exhibited to the public during the 7th War Loan "Here's Your Infantry" tour.

●THE HUMAN BRIDGE—the Infantry way of a quick crossing where barbed wire bars the way to the enemy . . . will be demonstrated. There will be a presentation of tactics, equipment and weapons.

The men of "Here's Your Infantry" average TWO YEARS overseas . . . wearing over 1,000 decorations. Twenty-eight units have been training since mid-March to show you the sacrifices, danger and suffering our infantry has facing them every day.

YOU WILL SEE

- ★Bazooka in Action.
- ★Aid men to the Rescue . . . demonstrating how medical aid men work unflinchingly.
- ★"Attack on a Fortified Position" staged by Tactical Section.
- ★Hand-to-Hand Combat.
- ★39 Infantrymen attack Japanese Pillbox with machine guns, rifles, automatic rifles, bazookas and flame-throwers.

CAPTAIN

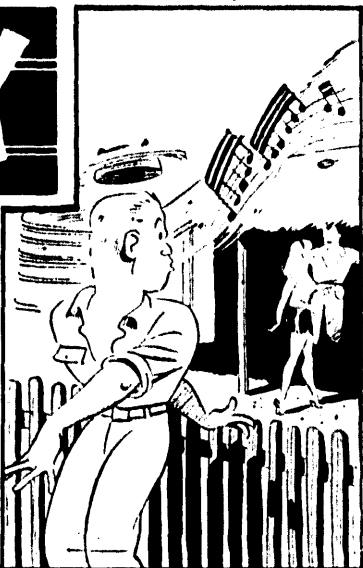

EASY

T. M. REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

RETURNING FROM THE BORNEO MISSION, CAPTAIN EASY AND GRETCHEN VAN CUREN, A DUTCH REFUGEE, LAND NEAR A PHILIPPINE BASE

THE COLONEL SAID TO SEND YOU RIGHT IN TO HEAD-QUARTERS, CAPTAIN!

CAPTAIN EASY SAYS HE OWES HIS LIFE TO YOU, MISS VAN CUREN! I'LL MAKE IT--AHEM--MY PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY TO FIND YOU LODGING IN THE VILLAGE!

YOU ARE KIND, COL. MALABNEY!

LATER--

I HAVE MUCH ROOM, COLONEL! I AM VERY GLAD IF MISS GRETCHEN WILL BE MY GUEST!

THANK YOU, ESTRELLA! THAT SOLVES HER HOUSING PROBLEM!

OH! SO MANY SOLDIERS! IF I ONLY HAD SOME OTHER CLOTHES!

LOOK, GRETCHEN! WE ARE SAME SIZE-- YOU WEAR MY DRESS, YES?

NEWS OF THE DUTCH REFUGEE SPREADS--

I GOT IT STRAIGHT FROM A GUY THAT SAW HER-- SHE'S A KNOCKOUT!

HAS SHE REALLY GOT BABY BLUE EYES?

HELLO, BOYS! WON'T YOU COME IN?

IF WE HAD SOME MUSIC WE COULD DANCE!

O VARE DID CAPTAIN EASY GO?

CAPTAIN EASY SAY, TELL YOU HE DROP BY TO SEE IF YOU NEED ANYTHING! HE SAY HE DID NOT THINK YOU DID!

HE'S GONE!

GO! GET OUT! GE-SCRAM! I WANT TO BE ALONE!

JIMINY! WHAT DID WE DO? WHAT'S GOT INTO HER?

OH, ESTRELLA! WE DID NOT EVEN NOTICE MY NEW DRESS!

I LOVE A LITTLE NAP ON SUNDAY MORNING

I HAVE A NICKEL?

DADDY!

BZZZ

GET OUT!
HOW CAN I
TAKE A NAP?
SCRAM!

NOW, WHAT DID I DO?
I CHASED MY LITTLE FAMILY OUT OF THEIR LIVING ROOM! I'M A MEAN, UGLY,
OLD FOOF!

I'M SORRY, SON!
IT'S YOUR HOUSE,
JUST AS MUCH AS MINE

OH, THINK
NOTHING OF IT, POP!

SURE,
I LOVE
YOU,
DADDY

COOKIE, IT DOES MY OLD HEART GOOD TO KNOW YOU'LL FORGIVE
ME-- YOU'RE ALL
TOO GOOD FOR ME

MYSELF WHEN I DO THINGS, LIKE THAT

THERE, THERE,
NOW, DON'T WORRY DEAR--
IT'S ALL RIGHT!

I FEEL BETTER
AGAIN-- I'VE GOT PEACE BACK
IN MY SOUL--
I'M SERENE
INSIDE

DAGWOOD, YOU SHOULDN'T HAVE APOLOGIZED TO US! WE WERE
THE ONES WHO WERE WRONG

IT WAS OUR FAULT,
POP

I WAS IN THE WRONG

WE PROMISE TO BE QUIET, WHILE YOU GO IN AND
FINISH YOUR NAP

POP!

NOPE, I'M NOT GOING TO LIE
DOWN AGAIN!
IT'S IMPOSING
ON THE REST OF YOU

I TELL YOU
I'M NOT GOING TO TAKE A NAP!

YES, DEAR, WE INSIST!
WE WANT YOU TO BE HAPPY,
POP

NOW, IF THEY
WAKE ME UP
AGAIN, I'M GOING TO CROWN THEM!

THEY COME OUT THE AIRLOCK EXIT HATCH INTO THE STRANGE CITY OF THE SKYMEN...

FLASH HASTILY GULPS THE THIN UPPER AIR, BUT DALE STARTS TO FAINT. A FRIENDLY SKYMAN SAYS, "PUT ON THESE AIRCONS -- THEY'LL CONDITION YOU TO BREATHING HIGH AIR, IN A FEW MINUTES."

BREATHING COMFORTABLY THROUGH THE AIRCONS, THEY ARE BROUGHT BEFORE KING OZON. SUDDENLY, FLASH'S MUSCLES FENSE UNCON-ROLLABLY. OZON COMMANDS, "SEARCH HIM!"

AN ELECTROTECTOR HAS SPOTTED FLASH'S METAL WEAPON, TURNING ON A TENSO-RAY TO HOLD HIM MOTIONLESS, TILL AN INSULATED SKYMAN DISARMS HIM.
